LCCC alumni will discuss career options

The Career Planning/Placement Office, Alumni Association, and Student Affairs Division at Luzerne County Community College are gearing up for the sixth annual Alumni Career Fair, to be held at the college's main campus in Anticoke.

The Alumni Career Fair will be held on Friday, April 24, from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., at the college's Advanced Technology Center.

Area high school students, LCCC students and members of the community will have the opportunity to gain first-hand knowledge of a variety of careers from LCCC graduates.

The fair is designed to allow professionally established alumni the opportunity to speak with interested students about their professions.

More than 30 of the community college's two-year associate degree and one-year certificate career programs will be represented at the fair. Demonstrations by a number of the technical program areas will also be set-up in the Advanced Technology Center. This year's event also will feature a job fair with employers reviewing resumes and discussing job opportunities with interested individuals.
