Holocaust program April 20 at Penn State

A special program about the Holocaust in honor of the National Days of Remembrance will be held from 5-6 p.m. Monday, April 20, in Hayfield House on the campus of Penn State Wilkes-Barre in Lehman. The program is opened to interested persons. Rabbi James Michaels of Temple Israel will be the moderator; Tikvah Jeral of Wilkes-Barre, a survivor of the Holocaust in Poland, will share her story as will the Rev. Fred Mauger, Episcopal minister from Moscow, Pa.

Mrs. Jeral, a tiny child, was hidden by a non-Jewish family for four years during WWII. Reverend Mauger, as an American soldier, was with one of the first units to enter the death camp, Dachau.

"This program is being held to help students, faculty and other community residents better understand the terrible history of the Holocaust, and therefore to participate in commemorating the annual nationwide Days of Remembrance April 26 through May 3," said Dr. William Pearman, campus executive officer of Penn State Wilkes-Barre. The national observance marks the unprecedented and cruel events of 50 years ago when the world was engulfed in war and Nazi Germany was engaged in the full implementation of "The Final Solution of the Jewish Question."

Pet photos with Easter Bunny

On Saturday, April 18, the Easter Bunny will be at SPCA of Luzerne County. Bring your favorite pet in for a color photo with the Easter Bunny and his egg tree. Cost is $5 per photo. Pictures will be taken from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Pet Easter baskets and other items also will be available.

Auction of artwork to benefit library

Supporters of the Back Mountain Memorial Library have scheduled an art auction to raise funds and serve as the kickoff function leading up to the 46th annual Library Auction. The art auction will be held Friday, May 15 at Irem Temple Country Club beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Conducted by Ross Galleries of Holbrook, New York, the auction will feature art in several media including works by Michel Delacroix, Leroy Neiman, Marc Chagall, Joan Miro and others. There will be a $12.50 charge for admission, with advance purchases preferred.

A preview of the works to be offered for sale will be held from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m., during which time complimentary hors d'oeuvres, wine and cheese will be available. The auction will begin at 8:30 p.m. Payment for purchases may be made by check, as well as by Visa, Mastercard and American Express.

The library benefits by receiving a portion of the admission charge and a percentage of the proceeds from the items sold.

For admission tickets, call the library at 675-1182 or Stephanie Reich at 696-3219.
