Nunsense comes to the Music Box

Reverend Mother and her Little Sisters of Hoboken will visit the Music Box Dinner Playhouse for a four week run of the nation's merriest musical romp "Nunsense." These very talented sisters kick up their heels in an all-singing, all-dancing family entertainment, staged by the good sisters to raise funds for their convent. The award-winning show, written by Dan Goggin, is the second longest running off-Broadway musical, entering its 7th season at New York's Douglas Fairbanks Theatre - playing over 2600 performances to date. And now, for 14 performances, the Music Box Players will present "Nunsense" April 24 to 26, April 30, May 1 to 3, 7 to 19 and 14 to 16.

Tickets are now on sale for dinner/show and show/only. Special group rates and Senior Citizen group rates are available. Also as a special tribute to the area's many fine orders of nuns - a special $2 discount will be offered for dinner/show and show-only for most performances. On Friday, May 1, a special "served" dinner will be offered instead of the usual buffet. Entrees of prime rib or baked stuff flounder may be chosen. At all other performances, the superb buffet will include entrees of roast beef, chicken, fish, pasta, rice pilaf, potatoes, vegetables, salad, rolls and butter, a dessert bar, coffee and tea. A cash bar is open at all performances.

At performances Thursday through Saturdays, the bar opens at 6 p.m., the dinner is served at 6:30, and the curtain is at 8 p.m. At Sunday matinees, the bar opens at 1:30, dinner is served at 2 p.m. and curtain is at 3:15 p.m.

To make reservations, call the box office at 283-2195. The Music Box Players perform at The Music Box Dinner Playhouse, 196 Hughes Street, Swyersville. The Playhouse is located off Route 11 (Wyoming Avenue) halfway between the Forty Fort Borough Building and the Midway Shopping Center.
