Children's Theater Festival May 13-15

The International Children's Theater Festival, a division of the F.M. Kirby Center, brings its magic back to Wilkes-Barre May 13, 14 and 15. Five all-new performing groups and individuals will help celebrate the 5th anniversary of this exciting event.

This year's offerings include Roseland Musical's "Flit, Flit." This Spanish dance performance features the antics of bugs who share our houses. The insects are actually acting out human attitudes, which allows for a very humorous show, at The Kirby Center.

The Jewish Community Center will be the venue for America's Bob Berky—a loveable, zany clown/mime. Bob has performed worldwide, enchanting and involving audiences with his kazoo conversations, mad-cap characters and tremendous talent.

Australia multi-instrumentalist Peter Combe will delight audiences at the Dorothy Dart Center with lively original children's songs.

Rag N Bone Puppet Theater is one of Canada's most distinguished puppet companies. They will present "A Promise is a Promise" (a Robert Munsch story) at St.

Stephen's Church social room. This is the story of an Inuit Indian girl who promises her parents not to fish in the ocean. What happens when that promise is forgotten is an elegant, funny story.

Another highlight of the Festival will be Kahaurangi - A New Zealand Maori Dance group. This colorful program traces New Zealand and dance through history; and is interspersed with tradition, geography and colorful costumes, at Irem Temple.

A fifth year anniversary special will take place Wednesday at The F.M. Kirby Center at 6:30 p.m. All companies will perform 10 minutes of their 50 minute shows to give us a sampler of this education event. A five-for $5 taste of the world.

This year's festival is sponsored in part by Boscov's Wilkes-Barre store, Nesbitt Memorial Hospital, Sallie Mae, Coca-Cola Bottling and Price Chopper Supermarkets.

Tickets are available at the Kirby Box Office for $4/daytime show. Golden Passes for $12 allow admittance to any show any day (based on availability). For further information, call 829-KIDS.

HOMEBUGGIES - "Flit, Flit," a Spanish dance performance features the antics of bugs who share our houses, will perform at the Children's Theater Festival in Wilkes-Barre on May 13 to 15.
