

Irem Temple holds annual Easter Egg Hunt

The members of Irem Temple Shrine treated hundreds of area youngsters to the annual Easter Egg Hunt held at the pavilion at Irem Temple Country Club recently with prizes awarded to children in all age categories from infancy through age 10 and above. This year's event was held under the direction of Paul G. Nicholson, Irem's Oriental Guide and member of the Divan. Additional committee members included Shriners Keith J. Murray, James J. Beyer, Theodore R. Luff, Jr. and Scott B. Shuster and their ladies. Illustrious Sir Frederick J. Dietrich, Sr. of Clarks Summit is the Potentate of Irem Temple. He and his lady, Betty, helped area youngsters greet the Easter Bunny. Shriners from throughout the United States support the operations of their 19 affiliated crippled children's hospitals and 3 burn units. Pictured seated above from left are Rebecca Dietrich and Stephen Dietrich. Standing from left are Paul G. Nicholson, Oriental Guide and Mrs. Nicholson, the Easter Bunny, Mrs. Dietrich and Illustrious Sir Frederick J. Dietrich, Sr., Potentate of Irem Temple.

Irem Ladies' Golf Association begins season with brunch

The Irem Temple Ladies Golf Association opened its 1992 season with a Brunch on Tuesday, April 21 at the Country Club in Dallas. The chairman, Lois DeGennaro, welcomed the members and guests which included the Irem Potentate's wife Lady Betty Dietrich. A brief business meeting followed with the awarding of an honorary membership certificate to Elsie Dean, a former long time member of the Irem Ladies' Golf Assoc.

Paul Roman, Irem Golf Prospector briefly. Bridge was enjoyed by some of the members while others played in a golf scramble which was won by Barbara Vivian, Kay Goodman, Joann Freeman and Ruth Post.
