Dallas 6th graders celebrate Latin culture

Montessori School summer camps will begin June 29

The Wyoming Valley Montessori School, 851 West Market Street, Kingston, is scheduling its summer camp programs from June 29 through August 7. Modeled on the same principles of child centered, respectful, hands-on discovery learning that govern the Montessori School program, the camps will offer a series of art programs as well as two theme camps.

Week-long art camps will offer Drawing/watercolor; Papermaking/Casting/Marbling; Ceramics; Jewelry; Acrylic Painting and Photography. The art camps will be under the direction of Gary Grossman, director of the Artisan's Studio and Silvery Moon in Clarks Summit. Art instructors include: Pat DeVirgillis, Predrag Djordjevic, and Bob Kohinsky.

Theme camps will feature "A Week in Sherwood Forest" (July 27-31) and "A Week in an African Village" (August 3-7). Advisors to the Africa Camp will be Jim and Nancy Merryman. Both are anthropologists and he teaches at Wilkes University. They have studied and lived in Africa for many years including eight years with the Somali nomads.

The camp director is Kris Ertley. A kindergarten teacher at the Wyoming Seminary Lower School, she is a graduate of the University of Vermont with a degree in early childhood education. She taught at last year's Montessori summer camp.

Also returning from last summer's staff is Art advisor Mona Anania. She was the creator of the woolly mammoth, the pterodactyl and the colonial village. She teaches art in the Bloomsburg Public Schools.

Camp will begin at 10 a.m. and conclude at 2 p.m. Children will be grouped by age for the Sherwood Forest and African Village camps: 4-5's, 6-8's and 9-10's.

Children should bring a sack lunch and beverage each day. The cost is $50 per week for art camp and $55 for the Sherwood Forest and African Village camps. Sibling discount is $5.

For more information and registration, contact the School at 288-3708.

Trucksville Nursery School plans summer mini-camps

The Trucksville Nursery School, located in the Trucksville United Methodist Church will hold Pre-school Mini-Camp for four and five year old children. Sessions will be offered for 4 weeks from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, and from 9 a.m. to noon on Fridays. There will be 12 children per class with two teachers for each class. The cost of the program is $40 per week per child. Siblings and Church members can attend for a $5 discount. You can choose all four weeks, or any combinations of weeks, but please register early for the sessions of your choice. Registrations must be completed by May 27. Contact Linda Mazur at 696-3897, or the church office for more information between the hours of 9 a.m. and noon.

Week 1, June 23-June 26
Week 2, June 30-July 3
Weeks 1 and 2 are Music, Dance and Movement Camp. This camp will include movements and exercises that include developing special relationships, following directions and free expression. They will enjoy aerobics, tumbling, and active games in balancing, climbing and different types of movement.

Week 3, July 7-July 10
Week 4, July 14-July 17

Weeks 3 and 4 are Nature and our FiveSenses Camp. This camp will focus on exploring our five senses. Children will be exposed to a variety of sensory experiences including: identifying and sequencing sounds, listening walks, identifying objects and environment through touch, depending on sense of smell. Exploring taste will include experience with different tastes as well as a cooking project children will complete and eat. The children will enjoy hands on experiences, indoors and outdoors through a series of creative activities.
