Penn State Club summer dinner slated for June 11

The Penn State Club of Wyoming Valley will hold its annual summer dinner at the Fox Hill Country Club on June 11. There will be a reception at 6 p.m. followed by dinner at 7:30 p.m. The affair is open to all members of the Penn State Club, Penn State Alumni, friends, supporters and fans of Penn State. Reservations may be made by contacting Jack Kolesar, President of the Club at 287-5557, Peg Grimes, Secretary, at 288-9668 and Andrew Barilla, 288-5142.

Coach Jim Williams, a member of Joe Paterno's staff for 16 years, will be the principal speaker. Williams, a graduate of Penn State in 1963, played in three bowl games and has coached in 13 bowl games in his long career at Penn State. Since joining the Penn State Staff, his assignment has been with the defensive line and he developed such outstanding players as Bruce Clark and Matt Millen who won fame in the NFL.

Coach Williams is well known in this area as he recruits Northeastern Pennsylvania for the Penn State Football Team. In the past decade, more than 12 players from the Wyoming Valley Conference have been part of the Penn State Football Squad and a number of them played on the 1982 National Championship Team which beat Miami in the Fiesta Bowl. Williams will discuss the future of the Penn State Football Program as Penn State will commence playing in the Big Ten Conference Schedule in the 1993 season.
