Police reports

Kingston Twp.

ARRESTED FOR BURGLARY

Robin Bedford, 21, of Parrish Street, Dallas, was charged with burglary, theft by unlawful taking, and criminal trespass in connection with a burglary on Lehigh Street, police said.

Bedford is alleged to have burglarized the home of Jonathan Balester on May 26, taking a Sony CD player, foreign currency, t-shirts, a 35 mm Minolta camera, a chocolate brown leather coat, air pistol, video tapes, field glasses and two wristwatches.

Investigating officers of the burglary were Ptl. Walter Davis and Ptl. Frank Ziegler.

On May 27, Ptl. Robert Weiss, Sgt. James Balavage, and Chief Paul Sabol, along with Dallas Borough Chief Jack Fowler and James Drury obtained a search warrant of Bedford's home and recovered most of the property.

An arrest warrant was issued for Bedford and he was picked up at his place of employment by Chief Sabol and Ptl. Weiss, police said.

A warrant was also issued for Leo Edwards, 18, of Carpenter Road, Harveys Lake, police said. Edwards was still at large Monday afternoon.

Bedford was arraigned and sent to the Luzerne County Correctional Facility in lieu of $5,000 bail, police said.

CITED FOR TRAFFIC LIGHT VIOLATION

Gerald Schmid, 49, of Main Street, Dallas, was cited for a red light violation after an accident at the intersection of Route 309 and Church Road, May 22, police said.

Schmid was driving south on Route 309 at about 5:05 p.m. when he told an officer that he was day-dreaming when the next thing he knew a vehicle was in front of him at the intersection of Route 309 and Church Road. Schmid applied his brakes and slid about 82 feet before colliding with a vehicle driven by Michael Bielecki, 32, of Burke Street, Plains, police said. Bielecki had been coming off of Church Road onto Route 309 with a green light when the accident occurred, police said.

Investigating officer was Ptl. Walter Davis.

COLLISION ON MOUNT OLIVET ROAD

Two vehicles collided head-on on Mount Olivet Road May 26, injuring both drivers, police said.

Paul Frank Kaplanski, 46, of Hill Street, Trucksville, told police he was driving north on Mount Olivet Road at about 2:42 p.m. when his car hydroplaned into the oncoming lane while rounding a curve.

Kaplanski told police that he applied his brakes, but was unsuccessful in avoiding a collision with a southbound pickup truck driven by Michael J. Judge, 38, of rear Washington Street, Wilkes-Barre.

Judge told police that he applied his brakes and swerved right before the crash.

Investigating officer was Ptl. Michael Moravec.

COLLISION WITH TRUCK AT 309 AND CARVERTON ROAD

A tractor trailer and Jeep Wagoneer collided at the intersection of Route 309 and Carverton Road May 30, police said.

William D. Schrack, 59, of Mill Hall, was driving a tractor trailer north on Route 309 at about 7:45 p.m. when the truck collided with a Wagoneer traveling west on Carverton Road, police said. The Wagoneer was driven by Edward William Price, 27, of Harris Hill Road, Trucksville. Price was injured in the crash, according to police reports.

Both drivers said they had the green light, police said.

Investigating officers were Sgt. James Balavage and Ptl. Robert Parrish.

Dallas Township

VEHICLE TAKES OUT UTILITY POLE

According to Dallas Township police, a 1982 Chevrolet Malibu operated by John Thompson, Jr., 16, of Valley View Trailer Park, Dallas and owned by Philip Andrus of Valley View Trailer Park, Dallas, was involved in a one-vehicle accident on Overbrook Road at the intersection with Pioneer Ave. Sunday, May 24. According to the report, Thompson stated to police that while coming down the hill at Pioneer Ave., he saw a deer crossing the road and accidentally hit the gas instead of the brakes. When he applied the brakes, his vehicle skidded 58 feet through the intersection, coming to rest against a guard rail and a utility pole on Pioneer Ave. His vehicle sustained moderate damage and was towed from the scene.

Patrolman John Appel, Jr., investigated the accident.

ARRESTED FOR D.U.I.

According to Dallas Township police, Robert Shotwell, 21, of Valley View Trailer Park, Dallas, was arrested Friday, May 22 and charged with driving while under the influence. Police said that his blood alcohol level as determined by a blood test was .2%, twice the legal limit.

Patrolman Doug Higgins investigated the incident.

Westmoreland students clean up the woods

Mike Ferko rolls a old tire up a hillside across the street from the Westmoreland Elementary School May 27. Ferko and other fifth-grade students from Priscilla Liput's homeroom spent the afternoon collecting four bags of garbage, six bins of recyclables, five tins and some assorted metal junk from the woods. Dallas school board will adopt final budget June 15

The Dallas School District will hold a special meeting June 15 at 7 p.m. to adopt a final budget for the 1992-93 school year.

The meeting will be held in the administration building. The preliminary budget, adopted in May, calls for no increase in the tax rate, which is at 158 mills presently.

Revenues for the 1992-93 school year are budgeted at $15,247,238, a 4.2% increase over this year. Expenditures are budgeted at $14,361,072, a 3.7% increase from this year.

Though the next election for school board members is a year away in the Dallas School District, the Dallas Taxpayers Forum is already preparing a slate of candidates.

The Taxpayers Forum was formed in the fall of 1991 to protest what its members considered an outrageous request by the teachers for a 9.85% average yearly pay increase for five years.

The candidates will include Joseph Kunec, president of the Forum, Maureen Banks, and Tom Russ. Kunec said that two other possible candidates are being interviewed.

Property transfers

Conference

"Participants may register up until the day of the conference," Ms. Belk said. "Although we can't guarantee a wide choice of open workshops, women and men are welcome to join us." Since workshops are filled on a first come-first served basis, anyone who has not registered in advance should get to campus as close to 8 a.m. as possible.

Registration fees are $21 per person, $15 for senior citizens age 65 and over and free for persons under age 18.

For further information on the conference, scholarships, transportation and special needs, call 675-9124 or 1-800-426-2358. A vegetarian lunch will also be available.

Some topics that are available

The Luzerne County Women's Conference still has a variety of workshops open on a first-come-first served basis for late registration. As of Tuesday, these are a few of the 40 workshops still open:

- "Why Daughters are Better," a panel discussion for women who have taken over their fathers' businesses.
- "Career Awareness and Transition," a program for learning-disabled college students.
- "Vestiges of the Past: Electing Women to National Office," strategies for electing Pennsylvania's first woman governor or U.S. senator conducted by Rep. Phyllis Mundy, county commissioner Rose Tucker and others.
- "Sexual Harassment," conducted by staff of the Victim's Resource Center.

Many other workshops dealing with issues such as women in management, women and AIDS, nutrition, family life, business, spiritual topics and world issues are open on a first-come-first served basis.

For more information call 675-9124 or 1-800-426-2358. FAX 717-675-8308.

Fishing is free June 6 and 7

The Pennsylvania Fish and Boat Commission will be holding its Fish-for-Free Weekend on June 6 and 7. The weekend, which allows all anglers to fish without a license or trout/salmon permit, coincides with National Fishing Week (June 1-7). The National Fishing Week's theme this year is "Join the First Family...Take a Friend Fishing," and focuses on the family-oriented joys of recreational fishing.

Kingston Township Rec. Program signups

The Kingston Township Summer Recreation Program will be held from June 15 to August 7. Registration for children in grades 1 through 6 is scheduled for Saturday, June 13, at the Center Street Park from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m. Registration fee is $1 per child.
