JOSEPH AND SUE HAND

Joseph and Sue Hand note 25th anniversary

Joseph R. and Sue Hand of Dallas recently celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary. They were married on May 28, 1967 at the home of the bride's parents near Orange. The Reverend William Reid officiated at the ceremony. Maid of Honor was Carol Kloiber Usher of the Allentown area, and the late Joseph M. Hand, served as Best Man for his son. Sue Hand, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Larish of Dallas, is a graduate of Kutztown University. She taught school in Laurel, MD and at Gate of Heaven, Dallas. She belongs to numerous artistic organizations including the International Society of Marine Painters, the Pennsylvania Watercolor Society, and the Australia Society of Miniature Artists. Locally, she is a member of the Wyoming Valley Art League; Cider Painters of America, Dallas chapter; and Friends of WRGN (Christian Radio). Joseph, son of Mayor and Mrs. Paul LaBar and the late Joseph M. Hand, is a graduate of RCA School of Electronics, New York City. A former computer operator with the Department of Defense, he and Sue own and operate Sue Hand's Imagery, a fine art school and gallery in Dallas. He serves as an usher at the Fellowship Evangelical Free Church. The Hands are the parents of one daughter, Heather Hand Madeira, of Dallas.

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD J. GRIFFITH

Mr. and Mrs. Griffith will renew marriage vows

Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Griffith of South Main Street Trucksville, will renew their marriage vows on June 6 at the Shavertown United Methodist Church. Their son, Rev. Roger E. Griffith, will perform the ceremony. They were married on June 7, 1942, at the same church by the Rev. Enoch Hughes. The couple has four children: Richard Jr., Roger, and Robert, all of Montrose, and Barbara Roberts of Dallas. They have eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Mrs. Griffith is the former Dorothy Loveland of Trucksville and has been active with the United Methodist Women as well as instrumental in the initial organization of the Dallas Women's Club. Mr. Griffith, also very active in the church, is retired from the U.S. Postal Service after serving in several positions, including superintendent of the Shavertown Branch and Postmaster of Trucksville. A dinner will be held at the Independent Ballroom, Kingston, for family and friends after the church service.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyle celebrate 55th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. C. Wesley Boyle, Lakeside Drive, Harveys Lake will observe their 55th wedding anniversary on Friday, June 5. They were married in the Washington Memorial Chapel, Valley Forge by the Rev. John Robbins Hart. Mr. Boyle, prior to retirement in 1976, was the advertising manager for the Wilkes-Barre Publishing Co., publisher of The Wilkes-Barre Record, Times Leader and Evening News. Mrs. Boyle, the former Marion Humphreys, was associated with the Wyoming Valley Girl Scout Council and the Penn's Woods Girl Scout Council for many years in various capacities. The couple has one daughter, Mrs. Charles Austin, Harveys Lake. They have three grandchildren, Charles Wesley Austin, Mrs. Gail Kukosky and Jeffrey Austin. The anniversary will be celebrated with a dinner party at Damien's, Harveys Lake.

REV. AND MRS. GROVE ARMSTRONG

Rev. Armstrong will conduct special services June 5-7

Rev. Grove Armstrong returns to the Back Mountain for special services this weekend. Rev. Armstrong pastored the Trucksville Free Methodist Church from 1956 through 1969. It was during these years that the church moved to the present location on Carverton Road in Trucksville and built the new church. Rev. Armstrong now pastors the Central Congregational Church in Derry, New Hampshire. The special weekend is June 5-7 and is open to the community. Armstrong will speak Friday at 7 p.m. followed by a fellowship and refreshments. Saturday at 6 p.m. there will be a candle light spaghetti dinner to benefit youth camping followed by a concert by Mindy Genet and the Living Faith Praise Team. On Sunday, Rev. Armstrong will speak in both the 10:45 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. services. Living Faith Free Methodist Church would like to extend an open invitation to each of these events.

Methodists plan special service

The seven congregations of the (United) Methodist Urban Ministry of Greater Wilkes-Barre will observe the Festival Celebration of Pentecost on Sunday, June 7, at 10:30 a.m. at the First United Methodist Church of Wilkes-Barre, 7 North Franklin Street. The Reverend Kenneth R. Carder, pastor of Central United Methodist Church and pastoral staff director of MUM will be the preacher. The Rev. Carder is to become the pastor of the Clarks Summit Methodist Church, effective, July 1, 1992.
