Dallas Borough

TOOLS STOLEN FROM BACK OF TRUCK

Dallas Borough police are investigating the June 6 theft of a green tool box and tools valued at $300 from the unlocked camper cap of a pickup truck owned by Walter C. Bronson, 66, of Norton Ave., Dallas.

Patrolman John Judge, Jr., is investigating the incident.

SHRUBBERY TRAMPLED

According to Dallas Borough police, Brigitta Anduze of West Center Hill Road, Dallas, reported June 14 that someone trampled shrubbery in a small garden at the rear of her residence.

Patrolman Mike Krzywicki investigated the incident.

Dallas Township

POLICE INVESTIGATE THEFT OF C.D.'S

According to Dallas Township police, Matthew McLoughlin, 23, of Elm Crest Drive, Dallas Twp., reported Saturday, June 6, that 40 CD's valued at $600 were removed from a Chevrolet Blazer parked in his driveway.

Kingston Twp.

ONE-VEHICLE CRASH ON EIGHTH STREET

According to Kingston Township police, a 1985 Honda coupe operated by Paul Holena, 18, of Wilkes-Barre was involved in a one-vehicle accident Saturday, June 13, at the old Penn-DOT ash pile near Mt. Zion Road on Eighth Street. Police said that Holena swerved his car to miss two deer which had run onto the roadway, running off the road and striking a sign. His vehicle sustained moderate damage and was towed from the scene, police said.

Patrolman Robert Parrish investigated the accident.

MAN TRAPPED IN CAR AFTER ACCIDENT

According to Kingston Township police, a 1978 Ford station wagon operated by Anthony F. Buro, 34, of Pittston, was involved in a one-vehicle accident late Friday afternoon, June 12, on Carverton Road near the entrance to Sunrise Estates. Buro was trapped in his car and could not talk to police or rescue personnel, police said. Police investigation determined that the Buro vehicle was traveling west on Carverton Road when it struck the end of a curb and blew out a front tire approximately 75 feet past the entrance to Sunrise Estates. The blowout caused the car to slide sideways 252 feet along Carverton Road, hitting the curb again and leaving the roadway,

CASH, TOOLS, TAPES STOLEN FROM VEHICLE

Dallas Borough police are investigating the June 13 theft of cash, tools, keys and cassette tapes valued at $500 from a Suzuki Samurai owned by Pamela J. Kuzminski, 22, of 101 Main Street, Dallas. Police said that the vehicle's ragtop was also damaged.

Patrolman James J. Martin investigated the incident.

ARRESTED FOR D.U.I.

According to Dallas Borough police, Lisa Michelle Goldsmith, 19, of Dorchester Drive, Dallas was arrested Sunday, June 7 and charged before District Magistrate Earl Gregory with driving while under the influence and underage possession of alcoholic beverages. The charges stemmed from an incident in which police observed Ms. Goldsmith's vehicle traveling with a 1985 Chevrolet Caprice Classic operated by Kevin Michael Loeffler, 17, of Dallas, at the intersection of Overbrook Road and Pioneer Ave. Police said that the Cummings vehicle, which had stopped at the stop sign at the intersection, pulled out onto Pioneer Ave., colliding with the Loeffler vehicle, which had been traveling south on Pioneer Ave. After the

CARS HIT AT PIONEER AND OVERBROOK

According to Dallas Township police, a 1988 Mercury Cougar operated by P. Delbert Cummings, 76, of Trucksville was involved in an accident Thursday, June 11 knocking over a mailbox, glancing off a tree on the front lawn of the Dale Culver residence and coming to rest on the lawn near the curb, police said.

Buro was extricated from his car and transported to Wilkes-Barre General Hospital; Rescue I and Medic I assisted at the scene.

Patrolman Robert Parrish investigated the accident.

REAR-END ACCIDENT ON ROUTE 309

According to Kingston Township police, a 1986 Nissan Sentra operated by John Daly Leonard, 18 of Dallas and a 1984 Mercury Marquis operated by Susan G. Seeman, 35, of RR 6 Tunkhannock were involved in a rear-end accident on Route 309 near Pioneer Ave. Tuesday, June 9. Police said that both vehicles were traveling south on Route 309 when the Leonard vehicle collided with the rear end of the Seeman vehicle, which had stopped ahead of it. Ms. Seeman stated to police that she had stopped for another vehicle ahead of her. The Leonard vehicle sustained moderate damage and was towed from the scene, according to the report.

Patrolman Charles Rauschkolb investigated the accident.

POLICE INVESTIGATE A SERIES OF THEFTS

Kingston Township Police Sergeant James Balavage is investigating a series of thefts Saturday, June 13 on Oak St., Hill St. and Harris Hill Road in Trucksville. Police said that someone broke south in an erratic manner, weaving between lanes, on Route 415. She failed field sobriety tests, a portable breath test and a blood alcohol test.

Patrolman James Martin investigated the incident.

TWO-CAR ACCIDENT ON ROUTE 309

According to Dallas Borough police, a 1992 Buick Skylark operated by Raymond E. Miller, 78, of Wilkes-Barre was involved in a sideswipe accident Tuesday, June 9, with a 1989 Pontiac Sunbird operated by Charles M. Parada, 23, of Edwardsville, on Route 309 in front of the Bonanza Steak House. Police said that the Miller vehicle pulled out from the restaurant's parking lot, colliding with the Parada vehicle, which had been traveling north on Route 309 in the driving lane. Both vehicles point of impact, the Cummings vehicle spun around, coming to rest in a drainage ditch, police said. Both vehicles were driven from the scene, although the Cummings vehicle was pulled from the ditch by Schmid's Towing, police said.

Patrolman Wayman Miers investigated the accident.

PURSE STOLEN FROM CAR AT STATE PARK

According to Kingston Township police, an Etienne Aigner purse containing cash, a checkbook and credit cards was reported stolen Friday, June 12, from a vehicle belonging to a Shavertown resident, while it was parked at Frances Slocum State Park.

Patrolman Charles Rauschkolb investigated the incident.

KINGSTON TOWNSHIP POLICE CHIEF WARNS ON THEFTS

Due to the recent string of thefts from cars, Kingston Township Chief of Police Paul Sabol urges all motorists to remove all valuables from their cars and to make sure that their cars are securely locked when they are parked.

Car Show at Harveys Lake June 21

The Endless Summer at Harveys Lake Antique and Modern Car Show will be held Sunday, June 21 in the parking lot of Grotto Pizza.

The show will run from noon to 5 p.m. and is sponsored by Grotto Pizza, Coors Lite beer, and the Harveys Lake Business and Tourism Association.

Admission is $2 for adults, which buys a vote for the best car of the show. Children will be admitted free.

Those attending can expect to see classic cars from Reilly's Classic Cars in Kingston, '50s muscle cars, exotic new cars, older Corvettes, and some BMWs from the BMW Car Club, as well as rare vehicles from private collections.

For girls between 4 and 6 years old, the Little Miss Harveys Lake contest will be held at the show at 2 p.m.

Those interested in entering their child, should pick up an entry form, available at Harveys Lake businesses, or contact Charlotte Williams at Rich & Charlottes by June 19.

Entrants must live in the borough. The winner will be asked to be present at other Endless Summer events at Harveys Lake.
