Free seminar tells how to prevent drug abuse at home

CHOICES, Nesbitt Memorial Hospital's center for the comprehensive treatment of drug and alcohol abuse, will host a complimentary seminar, "Facilitating Environments, Strategies for Prevention in the Home" on Thursday, June 25, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. in its multipurpose room, 518 Wyoming Avenue, Kingston.

David Day, clinical director at CHOICES, offers his insight on rearing children in a healthy environment. The evening's program also will address the importance of providing a solid family structure for children and how open, constructive communication in the home setting will improve a child's self-esteem and help to develop positive coping mechanisms.

For more information on this seminar or any of the other CHOICES programs, call 283-2388 or 1-800-762-9492.

Mellon Will Be Right In Step With Barbara, Marilyn And Curt.

From the March of Dimes WalkAmerica to blood drives and bowl-a-thons and benefits of all kinds, United Penn employees volunteer hundreds of hours each year. Which is one reason we feel good about changing our name to Mellon Bank. They've always put their best foot forward, too. You see, our banking philosophies are really in sync. We're here to help people in any way we can. You'll see other changes, too. More products and services. Banking technology that's unsurpassed. Banking by phone that's unmatched. From one of the nation's best run banks. Financially strong. But we'll still be managed locally. And one other thing won't change. An honest commitment to the community. That's good news for Barbara, Marilyn and Curt. And for all of us.
