JULIE OJA

Oja will coach Misericordia women's b'ball

Julie Oja of Cortland, New York, has been named Head Women's Basketball Coach and Athletic Facilities Coordinator at College Misericordia. Athletic Director Dr. Michael Mould has announced.

Oja will guide the Lady Cougar program after spending three seasons as an assistant coach at Cortland State where she was a second-team Academic All-American and made the All New York State Team as a senior in 1988.

Originally from West Paris, Maine, Oja is excited about the opportunity to begin her head coaching career. "I feel I'm ready to be a head coach and I'm excited about this opportunity," she explained. "I've always wanted to coach and I've put in a lot of time and hard work as an assistant coach."

Oja's responsibilities will also include the coordination of the new Anderson Sports-Health Center which is currently under construction at Misericordia and is expected to be completed in January, 1993. Mould views Oja's appointment as a sign that Misericordia is continuing its commitment to the entire college community as well as the athletic program. "Julie's experience signals our commitment to providing the college community with solid physical educational and recreational opportunities," he said. "She is an excellent addition to our staff and will have an impact on the overall athletic program."

Barnes, Wasserott sail to yacht club victory

The Harveys Lake Yacht Club held its weekly Comet Class Sailboat race on Sunday, June 28. The weather provided a perfect day for sailing with steady winds and a sunny sky.

Race chairman Frank Wadas fired the starting gun at 12 noon rather than the 1 p.m. regular start to avoid the onslaught of waves from motorboats.

A triangular port course was initiated with the start at the club. The race continued to Alderson, Hansons, Point Breeze with the finish line at the clubhouse buoy.

Commodore Clinton J. Lehman M.D., posted the following results: 1st place, Skipper Jack Barnes and crew Charles Wasserott V; 2nd place, Capt. Joan Williams and Jane Harter, crew.

Ida and Leighton Parry served as observers during the race which ended in one hour and 50 minutes.

Plans have been completed for the "Board-Boat Invitational Sailboat race scheduled for July 26 at 1 p.m. All individuals who have board-boats will be invited to participate.

Misericordia soccer camp July 6-10

The inaugural Misericordia Soccer Camp for boys and girls will be held on campus, Monday, July 6 - Friday, July 10.

Players of all skill levels from ages 8-17 are invited to attend with instruction geared toward each student's level of development.

The $65 registration fee includes personalized instruction, free soccer ball and tee-shirt, lunch and refreshment breaks and exposure to a professional coaching staff and some of the area's best collegiate players.

Misericordia men's soccer coach Charles Edkins will serve as camp director and sees this as an excellent opportunity for area youngsters to enhance their playing skills. "This camp will provide players of all ages and abilities to improve their technical and tactical skills," he explained. "We have an excellent camp staff of college coaches and current and former collegiate players."

Also included on the camp staff are Ray Ott, Misericordia men's at Morristown High School, Morristown, NY; and several current College Misericordia players.

Penn State schedules sports camps

Penn State Wilkes-Barre is offering sports camps designed to give students the opportunity to improve their skills. The camps are open to boys and girls.

For instructional purposes, participants will be divided into groups according to age and ability levels, according to Melissa Noderer, workshop coordinator. All programs are directed by Jack Monick, Penn State Wilkes-Barre Athletic Director.

Two Soccer Camps are scheduled for the week of July 13. The first camp is for students between the ages of 6 and 9. The goals of the camp are to teach the young players technical development, running the ball, passing accuracy, receiving and dribbling.

For more experienced players, age 10 through 14, the instruction will focus on fast footwork and feints. Offensive, defensive tactics, and other techniques will be taught during this fast paced and intensive camp.

New this year is Field Hockey Camp, held the week of July 20. Students in grades 6 through 8 will earn the basic techniques and skills of the sport, which include grip, footwork, dribbling, drive, push, flick and other passing principles.

Special classes are also offered this summer in aerobics, karate, and tennis.

For more information, contact Melissa Noderer at 675-9114.
