If You Want To Know What It's Like At Mellon, Ask Joelynn Snyder Ott. From State College.

"I had set a goal that I wanted to retire at the age of 45. And I worked with Mellon and found that they were really great at helping me meet those goals. The people there, they're friendly, but they also know what they're doing. Which is very important to me because I've worked hard to save and invest and I have to feel comfortable with my bank. So here I am. I'm still retired. And I'm still working with Mellon Bank."
