Student Council aids Diabetes Ass'n.

The Dallas Middle School Student Council recently participated in the American Diabetes Association Rose Sale. This was the first opportunity the council had to assist this agency and the result was an overwhelming success. Over $900 in roses were sold in just three days. The council under the supervision of Miss Norine M. Amesbury has participated in numerous community projects during the past year.

Holly Pitcavage graduates summa cum laude from Wilkes

Holly T. Pitcavage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Pitcavage, Center Street, Shavertown, recently graduated summa cum laude from Wilkes University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Environmental Engineering.

Holly, a trustee scholarship winner at Wilkes, was the charter president of Ashrae, an engineering society, treasurer of the Earth and Environmental Science Club and treasurer of the Cue and Curtain Society. She was a member of the Society of Women Engineers, earned membership to Sigma Pi Sigma, the Physics Honor Society and finished her degree with the status of honors in engineering. During her four years at Wilkes, Pitcavage attained the Dean's List every semester.

She received fellowship offers from Rensselaer Polytechnical Institute, Cornell University and Penn State University and will begin studies toward a Master of Science degree in Environmental Engineering at Penn State in the fall.

Open House at Penn State for high school students July 22

Penn State Wilkes-Barre invites all area high school students, grades 9-12, to combine the chance for a free picnic supper with the opportunity to check out college options. High school students and their parents at an Open House on the campus in Lehman Wednesday, July 22 at 6:30 p.m.

Faculty and alumni will flip burgers for the light picnic supper and also provide information for young men and women thinking ahead about college.

John Barnes, admissions officer, said that the information picnic is designed for persons thinking ahead to college in the future; but anyone who is interested in fall, 1992 college courses is also invited.

Dallas, Lehman and Tech seniors reminded of photo appointments

Seniors from Dallas, Lake-Lehman and the West Side Tech High Schools are reminded that their appointments should be made as soon as possible for their yearbook glossies at Ace Hoffman Studios, the official yearbook photographer.

Call 779-5327 or 823-6177 for an appointment. Glossies should be completed before the beginning of the school year.

Lehman-Jackson PTA will meet August 18
