Auditions for Robert Dale Chorale July 27

The Robert Dale Chorale, the area's professional choral performance group, will be conducting auditions for singers seeking to join the chorale for the 1992-93 season. Auditions will be held on Monday, July 27, at the Marywood College Performing Arts Center. Interested singers must contact the chorale office at 717-586-3921 to schedule an audition time. Auditions are open to all voice categories and all candidates will be considered on the basis of vocal ability, musical knowledge, and sight singing skills. The Robert Dale Chorale's 1992-93 season will feature the works of Bach and Handel, as well as the music of prominent female composers. The chorale's season opening performance of Handel's Judas Maccabaeus has been scheduled for November 15, at Temple Israel. The Messiah Sing-A-Long, the holiday performance of Handel's Messiah, will take place on Sunday, December 20 at St. Luke's Church, Wyoming Avenue in Scranton.
