Meadows Nursing Center honors volunteers

"Thanks for Sharing - A Special Kind of Caring" was the theme of the recent Volunteer Recognition Luncheon at the Meadows Nursing Center, Dallas, honoring over 130 volunteers who contributed more than 15,000 hours of service to residents at the center this past year. Marie Deignan and Bessie Baumbach were resident greeters. Thomas J. Sweeney, Administrator at the Center, delivered the welcoming address, followed by invocation by Rev. Homer Smith. Entertainment was provided by Judy Fitch, now Miss Pennsylvania 1992. Special recognition was given for 5 years of volunteer service to Nancy Dukes, 763 hours; Grace Resio, 1,372 hours; Glenna Smith, 209 hours; Rev. Homer Smith, 282 hours; Betty Switzer, 335 hours; Donald Williams, 304 hours; Arline Wertman, 684 hours. Shown are volunteers, from left, Grace Resio, Marie Weir, Lillie Lamoreaux and Helen Squier.

LCCC will offer literacy tutor training workshop August 11

The Adult Literacy and Training Assistance (ALTA) Program of the Institute for Developmental Educational Activities (IDEA) at Luzerne County Community College, is offering a tutor training workshop on Tuesday, Aug. 11 from 1 to 4 p.m. The workshop, which is designed to train individuals to become volunteers in the ALTA Program, will be held in the Admissions and Administration Building (#5) on the LCCC main campus in Nanticoke. Individuals interested in becoming an ALTA volunteer tutor must possess a high school diploma and an interest in helping others. The ALTA Program recruits volunteers in order to provide clients with one-on-one instruction.

Funding for the ALTA Program is provided by state and federal grants through the Pennsylvania Department of Education, Bureau of Adult Basic and Literacy Education.

For more information about the ALTA Program at LCCC, or to register for the volunteer tutor workshop, contact the IDEA Office at 829-7406.
