Dale Campbell wins Yacht Club invitational

Showers, poor visibility with fog were the backdrop for the Harveys Lake Yacht Club "Mad-Dash Invitational" board-boat sailboat race held on Sunday, July 26. The race, open to anyone with a board boat, drew sailors from Penn Lake to Long Island. Those from Penn Lake were accompanied by Commodore Harold Cadwallader, Vice Commodore Betsy Smaltz and Penn Lake Mayor Ken McMillan.

The poor weather kept the lake free of motorboards thus enhancing the condition for a good sailboat race. Race Chairman Frank Wadas was assisted by Assistant Race Chairman Scott Shuster and Jack James. The course was laid out over three and one half miles and began at the Yacht Club buoy proceeded to a buoy near the Hughes dock then on to Hansons and Alderson, back to Hansons and finishing at the Yacht Club buoy via Alderson. All boats finished in the allotted time of one hour and 30 minutes. Commodore Clinton J. Lehman, M.D. posted the following results: 1st place in one hour three minutes and six seconds, Dale Campbell, HLYC;

2nd place, Dave Hoffman, Independent (1st and 2nd place winners sailed Phantoms); 3rd place, Jim Bahrt, Penn Lake Yacht Club sailed a Sunfish; 4th place Wendy Morris and Patti Snyder, HLYC, sailed a Phantom; 5th place, Ed Humphreys and crew Scott Lozo both of HLYC in a Phantom. Others who sailed were Jay Borton, HLYC and crew Tony Meyer of Lancaster; Dave Delaney, HLYC; Leigh Schoner-runner and crew Robert Schoner both of HLYC; Vice Commodore Betsy Smaltz of Penn Lake YC; Robert Scott, Penn Lake YC; Ed Wallace, Penn Lake YC; Jim Griffith with crew Shirley Carpenter of Elk Lake and Dave Gougler of Long Island. All contestants were required to sail with an unbroken egg and return it unbroken to the race committee at the conclusion of the race. Dale Campbell, Shirley Carpenter and Jay Borton were all winners in this category. Karen Shuster and Barbara James served as observers on the committee boat. Joan Williams was the hospitality chairperson. Scott Shuster and Jack James were co-chairmen of the event.
