Melissa Howell wins Seminary scholarship

Melissa Howell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Howell, Dallas, recently was named a recipient of the Wyoming Seminary Lower School Merit Scholarship. This academic merit scholarship is presented by Wyoming Seminary annually to two new students in grades 5 through 8 who excel in a written examination and an interview with the dean of the Lower School. Pictured, from left, are Mrs. Howell, Melissa Howell, and the dean of Wyoming Seminary Lower School, D. Allan Woodard.

Nathan Santos awarded music scholarship to Miami

Nathan Santos has been awarded full tuition scholarship to the University of Miami, Coral Gables, Florida, beginning the Fall semester 1992. He will be pursuing a master's degree in jazz studio studies with concentration on private study in string bass and electric bass.

NATHAN SANTOS

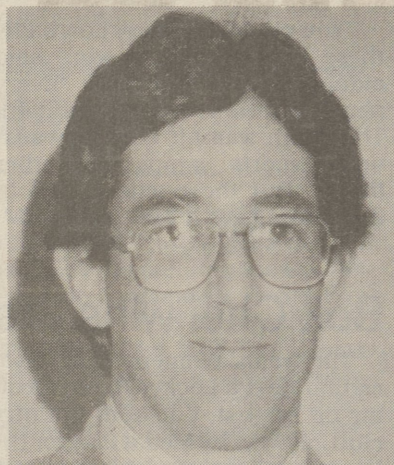

Nathan is a 1988 graduate from Wyoming Valley West High School with awards in band and choral competitions. He attended Wilkes University and graduated with a bachelor's of art in music performance, magna cum laude.

Santos is well-known for professional music activities in the Wyoming Valley, having been soloist for the Wyoming Valley Oratorio Society, Scranton Singer's Guild and the tenor soloist at First Presbyterian Church in Wilkes-Barre. More recently, he has been performing with the Cincopella Singers. For the last five summers he has served on the staff of Encore Music Camp. Nathan is the son of Professor Rosendo and Reverend Harriet Santos.

James Donnelly awarded Wilkes journalism scholarship

Wilkes University junior, James Donnelly of Hanover Township, has been awarded the Thomas J. Moran Scholarship in Journalism.

JAMES DONNELLY

Donnelly, recently received an associate degree in communication from Luzerne County Community College. Son of Maureen and the late Robert Donnelly of Harveys Lake, he hopes to pursue a career in one of the many communications fields.

Endowed by a $50,000 gift from The Capital Cities Foundation and the Time Leader, the Scholarship is given to a graduate of Luzerne County Community College interested in continuing his or her education at Wilkes University.

Penn State club members honored

Nine students at Penn State Wilkes-Barre were honored by the Student Government Association for outstanding club membership at the campus. The Outstanding Club Member Awards are presented annually at the Annual Leadership Awards ceremony to those members in each organization who have contributed above and beyond to their organization throughout the academic year.

Back Mountain recipients of the awards include: Robin Martin, Booster Club, Dallas; Eileen Tamarin, Broadcasting/WPSI, Trucksville; Melanie Marino, Campus Activities Board, Shavertown.

Lehman teacher Sandra Weyman participates in writing program

Area school teachers gathered recently for the Summer Writing Institute, an intensive workshop for selected teachers of writing from all grade levels, to learn, think and renew their commitment to education. The participants were awarded six graduate credits from Wilkes University.

Sandra Weyman of the Lake Lehman School District was among the participants in the Institute, part of the Northeast Pennsylvania Writing Project. The teachers met four days a week for three weeks to discuss current composition theory, research and editing. They also made presentations and participated in writing/editing response groups.

For more information on subsequent Writing Institutes and other Northeast Pennsylvania Writing Projects, contact Dr. Rosemary Williams, Project Coordinator and Co-chairman of the Education Department at Wilkes University at 831-4461.
