Folk group performs at Swetland Aug. 16

The musical duo Genuine Folk will perform at the Swetland Homestead in Wyoming, Sunday, Aug. 16 beginning at noon.

Tanja Britton and Bob Fletcher, who make up Genuine Folk, live in Tappanhook and have been playing folk music together for about three years, although their involvement in music and their friendship goes back over 15 years.

Although Genuine Folk are known for traditional folk music from many periods, as well as many original compositions, their performance Sunday will focus on music of the 18th century. The duo will also discuss the historical aspects of the music and the instruments they play.

The setting for the performance is the historic Swetland Homestead, 885 Wyoming Avenue, Wyoming. This historic house museum which interprets life in the Wyoming Valley between 1797 and 1860, is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Tours of the Homestead will be included in the price of admission with all proceeds to be used for the restoration of Swetland Homestead. The cost of admission is $3 for adults, $1 for children under 12. Children under 6 years will be admitted free and the family-oriented program will be geared to all ages.

Upcoming events at the Swetland Homestead include a hands on quilting workshop to be presented by veteran Wyoming Valley quilter, Albertina Groblewski on August 22 and 23. For more information, contact the Wyoming Historical and Geological Society at 823-6244, or 693-2740.
