Quilting show at the Swetland Homestead on August 22 and 23

Mrs. Albertina Groblewski of Kingston, will "Show and Tell" the fine art and craft of piecing and quilting at the Swetland Homestead Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 22 and 23, from noon to 4 p.m. each day. The historic site owned and administered by the Wyoming Historical and Geological Society is located on Wyoming Avenue, Wyoming. The rooms will also feature a display of her quilts, wall hangings and crib quilts as well as wearable needle art.

The Swetland Homestead is an historical house that mirrors the growth of Wyoming Valley since the era of the American Revolution. Now the property of the Wyoming Historical and Geological Society, the Homestead was presented to the Society in 1958 by Mrs. Frank G. Darte, a direct descendant of Luke Swetland who, with his sons, built this impressive early home. The Homestead's architecture and furnishings reflect the period from 1797 to 1865, affording visitors an opportunity to step back into the 19th century America and see how our ancestors lived.

A tour of the Homestead and an opportunity to quilt a square will be included in the cost of admission, (adults, $3, children under 12, $1, under 6 free). All proceeds will benefit the historic Swetland Homestead. For additional information, contact the Wyoming Historical and Geological Society at 823-6244.
