Area girls enjoy Seminary basketball camp

This summer girls from all over the area took part in the first annual Lady Blue Knights Basketball Camp on the campus of Wyoming Seminary College Preparatory School, Kingston.

Many of the participants play on teams from local schools, and were able to learn from experienced coaches and players at the college level, each with her own impressive credentials in the sport. With a small student to coach ratio, individualized instruction was an attractive component of the program, which will most likely be expanded to two weeks next year as part of Wyoming Seminary's summer school program. Pictured are students from Gate of Heaven School, Dallas. From left, Jada Kozick, Chrissy Kane.
