Dallas Baptist Church notes 23rd anniversary Sept. 20

Dallas Baptist Church will celebrate its 23rd anniversary September 20 at the 11 a.m. service. Past, present and future will be the theme. A covered dish lunch will follow the service.

The Dallas Baptist Church began in 1966 with vacation Bible school led by summer missionaries. The chapter was constituted September 14, 1969. Ground-breaking for the present building was held in May of 1981. South Baptists from several states helped build the building, along with its own congregation.

The church now has a chapel in Meshoppen and a Russian chapel in Wilkes-Barre. Bible study for the homebound began in 1983 and continues today. The church has a nursery for bed babies and toddlers, Bible study for all ages, morning and evening Sunday worship, and a children's worship.

Youth fellowship and adult fellowship are held once a month or more frequently. For more information, call the church at 639-5099.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN WOYCHICK

Woychicks will celebrate 45th anniversary Sept. 18

Mr. and Mrs. John Woychick, Terrace Avenue, Trucksville, will celebrate their 45th wedding anniversary on September 18. They were married in St. Therese's Church, Shavertown, by the late Reverend Bernard Grogan.

Their attendants were Ann Marie Woolbert, the late Joseph Woychick, Jr., James Farrell and the late John Brislin.

Mrs. Woychick is the former Margaret Farrell, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Farrell, Shavertown. Mr. Woychick is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Woychick, Sr., of Wilkes-Barre. He is a retired public accountant.

The couple are the parents of four children: Margaret Ann, deceased; Kathryn Ann Dobias, Turnersville, N.J.; John Jr., Bartonsville; and Louis, Shavertown. They also have seven grandchildren: Jeffrey, David and Kristen Dobias; John III, Heather and Sarah Woychick; and Jenna Woychick.

Their children honored their parents with an anniversary celebration. The event took place at their son's Shavertown home with over 70 friends and relatives in attendance. Music was provided by Pete Lieback.

Medical job fair planned at Misericordia in October

Dr. Carpenter Attends Seminar on Orthodontics

Dr. Charles M. Carpenter, D.M.D., F.A.G.D., of Forty Fort, a member of Dental Associates, recently participated in a week-end seminar entitled "Straight Wire Orthodontics Update." It was held in Dallas, Texas, and conducted by the American Orthodontic Society, Inc., a national non-profit educational organization located in Dallas.

The course included fourteen hours of lectures to provide advanced principles of the Straight Wire Technique, a modern, clinically proven method of straightening teeth. Clinician for the course was Dr. Robert Gerety, a nationally known instructor. The course information and case studies are designed to enable professional practitioners to improve diagnosis and treatment of dental problems of patients requiring orthodontic treatment. The society's 2,000 members are primarily general dentists and pediatric dentists who also offer orthodontics in their practices.

Dr. Carpenter is a graduate of King's College, and received a D.M.D. degree from the University of Pittsburgh in 1972. He served as a Lieutenant Colonel with the 300th Field Hospital, U.S. Army Reserves, headquartered in Ashley, and was on active duty with the unit during the Persian Gulf Campaign.

For the past twenty years, Dr. Carpenter has offered orthodontic treatment as well as general dentistry in his practice as a member of Dental Associates. His services are available at offices in the Wyoming Valley Mall, Wilkes-Barre; at 210 Carverton Road, Trucksville, and on Route 809 in Mountaintop, in the Weis Market Shopping Center.
