POLICE INVESTIGATE CRIMINAL MISCHIEF

According to Dallas Township police, a 1992 Plymouth Sundance owned by Sandra Heckman of Catawissa was reported vandalized while it was parked at Misericordia College Sunday, September 20. Police said that the car's radio antenna was bent and broken off and the right front quarter panel was scratched.

Patrolman John Appel investigated the incident.

SIDESWIPE ACCIDENT ON ROUTE 309

According to Dallas Township police, a 1992 Chevrolet Beretta operated by Joseph M. Gruver, 28, of Trucksville was involved in a sideswipe accident with a 1981 Datsun operated by Carol A. Atkinson, 40, of Dallas Friday, September 18. Police said that the Atkinson vehicle, traveling north on Route 309, struck the side of the Gruver vehicle after it pulled out in front of it from the parking lot of the House of Nutrition. The Atkinson vehicle was towed from the scene, police said. No injuries were reported to police.

Patrolman John Appel investigated the accident.

Kingston Twp.

SCOOTER INVOLVED IN HIT AND RUN ACCIDENT

According to Kingston Township Police, Robert Leonard of Dallas was involved in a hit and run accident at 12:40 a.m. on September 12.

Kingston Township Police report that Leonard was waiting on his Yamaha scooter at a red light at the intersection of Route 309 and Center St in Kingston Township. When the signal changed to green, he was struck by another vehicle which fled north on Route 309 according to police. Leonard's vehicle sustained severe damage according to police.

TWO INVOLVED IN ROUTE 309 ACCIDENT

Kingston Township police report that Bruce Malo of Clarks Summit was involved in a two car accident with Sarah Johnson of Dallas at 7:30 p.m. on September 14.

According to the police report, Johnson was traveling south on Route 309 and reached the intersection at Carverton Rd and Route 309. Malo was in the northbound turn lane on route 309 and did not see Johnson's approaching according to the police. Police report that Malo proceeded to make the left turn in front of Johnson's vehicle. Johnson swerved right and impact occurred to the left front of her vehicle and the right front of Malo's automobile according to the police reports.

POSTAL SERVICE JEEP INVOLVED IN ACCIDENT

According to Kingston Township police, a U.S. Postal Service jeep and a vehicle driven by Ann Corbett of Trucksville were involved in an accident at 2:20 p.m. on September 17.

The jeep, driven by Joseph Balchune of Duryea, had finished delivering the mail to 156 Spring Garden in Trucksville according to police reports. He backed the vehicle into the driveway at 156 Spring Garden when he was struck by Corbett who was traveling north on Spring Garden St according to Kingston Township Police.

TWO CAR ACCIDENT ON CARVERTON ROAD

According to Kingston Township police, Jacqueline Dickson of Trucksville was involved in a two car accident with Sherly Banta of Trucksville on September 12 at 12:40 p.m.

Dickson was traveling west on Carverton Rd. according to the police report. Banta, according to police, pulled onto the roadway and stopped in order to allow east-bound traffic to clear. Dickson momentarily took her eyes off of the road and struck Banta's vehicle causing light damage to both automobiles according to Kingston Township police.

Coast Guard P.O. Charles Sabulski participated in sailing ship festival

USCGC Gallatin was a sector commander responsible for crowd control, search and rescue and emergency medical services within a boundary of New York Harbor. An estimated crowd of two million spectators and 4,000 small craft made this one of the largest maritime events.

Coast Guard Chief Petty Officer Charles P. Sabulski, whose wife, Linda, is the daughter of Earle R. and Margaret E. Barnard of Country Club, Dallas, recently participated in Opsail '92 aboard the Coast Guard Cutter USS Gallatin, homeported in Governors Island, NY.

Sabulski and his shipmates ensured the parade route was cleared for 31 tall-masted square riggers, schooners and barques from several countries, including the Coast Guard barque, Eagle. Gallatin was also host to 100 dignitaries, dependents and friends who viewed the event from the ship's flight deck.
