Students attend Summer Governors Schools

Over the summer, three seniors from Lake Lehman High School spent five weeks at Governors Schools. Barbara Campbell, Sarah Sorber, and Layla Osman traveled to various parts of Pennsylvania to the Governor Schools for Art, Teaching, and Agricultural Sciences.

Barbara Campbell, the daughter of James and Ellen Campbell, went to Erie, Pa to Mercyhurst College to the Governor School for Art. While there Barbie majored in ceramics and minored in creative writing. She said that she enjoyed it and that it was one of the best experiences she has ever had.

"I not only learned about my art work," Barbie commented, "But I learned a lot about myself as well."

Barbie's future plans are to attend college getting her BFA, Bachelors in Fine Arts. She would eventually like to teach art to high school or college students.

Sarah Sorber, the daughter of Brad and Phyllis Sorber, spent five weeks at Penn State Main Campus at the Governor School of Agricultural Sciences. She believes it was a wonderful experience and describes it as being very "intense." Between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 9:30 p.m., the students spent their time in lectures, seminars, classes, on field trips, or in labs. Sarah felt that the best part of her experience was meeting lots of new people. She plans on attending college and is uncertain about her major.

Layla Osman, the daughter of Ahmet and Bonnie Osman, went to Millersville University to the Governor School of Teaching. She said that she had a great time. Layla spent two weeks teaching children and felt this was the highlight of her trip. Layla would like to attend Bucknell or Millersville University and someday teach English to high school students.

Tests for Dallas 9th, 10th grades

Dallas Senior High School students in Grades 9 and 10 are encouraged to register for the National Education Development Test (NEDT) that will be administered on Tuesday October 13, 1992, for the 9th grade and must be paid. It is advisable for students who will be taking the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) and going on to college to take the NEDT at this time. Ninth grade students interested in taking these tests should register in the guidance office. The registration fee is $4.50 and must be paid by Friday, Oct. 9. No late registration, or registration without fee can be accepted.

Grade 10 students interested in taking these tests should also register in the guidance office. The test will be given on Tuesday, Oct. 20, and must be paid by Friday, Oct. 16. No late registration or registration without fee can be accepted.

The various tests will take approximately three hours to complete, and they will measure the following intellectual skills: English Usage, Mathematics Usage, Social Studies Reading and Natural Sciences Reading.

Approximately two months after the test is administered, each student will receive a Student Handbook. This booklet will report his/her scores and will help in the interpretation of those scores.

The information derived from the NEDT, when combined with other relevant information, can be used to provide the student with a measure of his/her educational development thus far and to assist him/her in forming realistic educational and vocational plans.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact either Mrs. Russin or Mr. Shevock, guidance counselors, at the senior high school.

Live entertainment, films coming to Penn State campus this fall

Penn State Wilkes-Barre Campus has announced a series of live entertainment programs and films for fall 1992 which are open to the public. In October, actor Jonathan Frid will perform and in November, a dance group of Black American tradition. Films take place every Friday at noon and in the evening.

On Tuesday, Oct. 13, 7:30 p.m. in Hayfield House, Jonathan Frid will present one-man readers theatre program. Frid is the infamous Barnabas Collins of the cult favorite "Dark Shadows" television series and the equally ghoulish Jonathan Brewster in the Broadway production of "Arsenic and Old Lace."

His theatre program interweaves poetry and short stories, ranging from the spine-tingling to the whimsical, blending the best elements of storytelling tradition and performance. He will include selections from both British and American authors, such as Edgar Allan Poe, Saki, Irwin, Shaw, Stephen King, and James Thurber.

On Wednesday, Nov. 4, at 8 p.m. in the Athletic and Recreation Building, the Jaasu Ballet will share the dance and music of the Black African tradition. Accompanied by Djimbi and JumJum drums, the dancers will recreate the traditions of Senegal, Guinea, and Gambia. Colorful, authentic costumes and an African stilt walker provide a dazzling visual display.

The "Friday's Flicks" film series offers a movie at 12 noon and a different one at 7:30 p.m. in the Student Commons. For the next few weeks the schedule is as follows:

October 2, Noon, "The People Under the Stairs"; 7:30 p.m., "Blackrobe".

October 9, Noon, "Torch Song Trilogy"; 7:30 p.m., "Wild at Heart";

October 16, Noon, "DA"; 7:30 p.m., "JFK".

October 23, Noon, "FX2"; 7:30 p.m., "Europa, Europa".

On October 30, an all-day extravaganza of Stephen King's films will be shown: 10 a.m., "Carrie"; 12:30 p.m., "Graveyard Shift"; 3 p.m., "Cujo"; 5:30 p.m., "Silver Bullet"; and 7:30 p.m., "Pet Cemetery".

November 6, Noon, "Dog Fight"; 7:30 p.m., "Hairspray".

November 13, Noon, "The Doors"; 7:30 p.m., "Grand Canyon".

November 20, Noon, "Backdraft"; 7:30 p.m., "At Play in the Fields of the Lord".

December 4, Noon, "Madonna: Truth or Dare"; 7:30 p.m., "The Man in the Moon".

All programs are free and the public is cordially invited. For more information, call the Penn State Wilkes-Barre Campus at 675-2171.

Chef's and Artists

Get the flavor of the Back Mountain 'Chefs and Artists' the Back Mountain Memorial Library Cookbook. A $12.95 value, free with your new or extended 3-year subscription to The Dallas Post.

It's the tastiest treat around — Chefs and Artists was compiled and produced by volunteers from the library and the community as a fund raiser as well as a living memento of the region. Chock full of recipes for any meal, it includes these chapters:

Chef's Best: Recipes from restaurant chefs throughout the area
Something Special: Barbara Bush's Lemon Bars and Zucchini Soup; world-famous chef Wolfgang Puck's Scallops Beaumonaie; Ellen Casey's Governor's Chocolate Cake and special recipes from local folks, too.

The Salad Bar, From the Seas, Sweets and Treats, Good and Plenty Pies and much, much more including children's recipes and illustrations by area artists. Because of the high cost of this book, we must limit it to new or extended subscriptions of 3 years. By subscribing now, you'll also avoid any price increases during the term of your subscription. To order your subscription and receive Chefs and Artists free, bring in your payment with the coupon below or stop by our office in the 309-415 Plaza in Dallas.

Note: Because of the size of the cookbook, we must charge $3.50 for postage and handling if it is to be mailed.

Chefs and Artists makes a great gift. Keep it for yourself or give it to someone who loves cookbooks. Additional copies for sale at the Back Mountain Memorial Library.
