New children's play at Music Box

The Music Box Players, a non-profit theater company, are pleased to announce that they have been selected by the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts to receive a grant for the production of their original children's show, Shoot for the Moon.

This is the first application that the Music Box Players have made to the Pennsylvania Council, and the Players are the first theater company in Luzerne County to be awarded a grant.

Shoot for the Moon is written by Debbie Zeyner and Lee Thomas, with music by Ted Anderson. This "space odyssey" takes kids on a journey to the moon on board the U.S.S. Starhopper, a cargo ship designed to pick up and recycle "space junk" dumped by the human race.

Like all of the Music Box children's productions, Shoot for the Moon has been written by local residents. Debbie Zehner, who also directs this production, lives in Horizon Village, Mountaintop and is an Elementary school teacher in the Hazleton Area School District. Co-author Lee Thomas is a VM Systems Programmer for Nabisco Brnads and resides in Sutton Hills, Jackson Township.

The final member of the team is Vicky Gallagher, Manager of Chamber Operations, Chamber of Commerce in Wilkes-Barre
