PHYLLIS MUNDY

Vol. 103 N

Dallas, PA Wednesday, October 21, 1992

35 Cents

120th District State Representative race

Story

Homecoming Queens

Page 13.

Katie Bennett Dallas

Joy Kline Lake-Lehman

COMMUNITY

Leaf pickup schedules

Page 10.

New memorial books

Page 8.

Blood drives scheduled Page 7.

Quilts on exhibit at Misericordia Page 18.

SPORTS

Mounts, Knights win Sports page.

INDEX

18 Pages 2 Sections Calendar.....18 Classified......15-17 Editorials.....4 Obituaries.....14-15 Police report.....2 Property transfers..2 Social.....9 Sports.....11

CALL 675-5211 FOR HOME DELIVERY, NEWS OR ADVERTISING

Incumbent Mundy claims record of accomplishment

By GRACE R. DOVE

In two years as state representative for the 120th district, Phyllis Mundy has handled everything from major legislation to advising constituents on how to get a "deer crossing" sign placed on a road.

"There is no spare time. I work seven days a week, even during legislative recess," she said in an inter-

During her first term, Mundy says she has been the prime sponsor or has co-sponsored 217 bills

See MUNDY, pg 6

KEITH COSLETT

By GRACE R. DOVE Post Staff

Due to an increasing need for services, the Lake-Lehman school board voted at its regular meeting

Tuesday, October 13, to apply for a second $33,000 School-Age Child Care Grant to fund a before-and after-school day care program at A similar program is already in operation from 6:30-8 a.m. and 3:14-6 p.m. at the Lehman-

Jackson School, operated at no cost to the district by the Wee Care foundation. Ten eligible thildren, identified by the free and reduced lunch programs, must be serviced in order for the district to be eligible

$5,275,000 bond issue to refinance

the district's debt. Finance

The board also authorized a the Lake-Noxen school

Challenger Coslett wants to reclaim Republican district By BILL HARPER Post Staff

Keith Coslett thinks his views represent the 120th Legislative District better than those of incumbent Phyllis Mundy

"I don't think from a fiscal and social standpoint, she is representative of this district," Coslett said. "This is a Republican district and it always has been."

Coslett claims that Mundy's vote for a recent mass transit bill, which he said primarily benefits Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, is an example of her record of not

Lake-Lehman wants to expand day care

See COSLETT, pg 6

manager Ray Bowersox explained that taking advantage of lower interest rates will save the district between $200,000 and $300,000, depending on the condition of the bond market at the time of closing.

agreement with Pennsylvania Gas and Water Co., a special program for large-volume heating customers which will save the district approximately $12,000 per year.

contractors during the school year appointed the following persons:

Pribula, elementary; Richard Kaskey, social studies; Marvin

Wunderlich, biology, general

See DAY CARE, pg 10

The board set aside $945,140.48 to be paid to transportation

In other business, the board

• Teacher substitutes: Reann

The board also entered into a natural gas purchase and sales

Eric Sowga rattled the skins to rally the crowd at the Dallas High School Homecoming game October 17. For more photos and stories, turn to pages 11-13. (Post photo/Charlotte Bartizek)

Neighbors protest zoning change

Trucksville and the Dallas

Township community line, McCall preventing the property, which is currently unused, from commercial use is the zoning lines on the township map. This zoning is also standing in the way of current include the property as a commercial zone in an area that is already zoned commercially so that it can be marketed more effectively," plans, McCall said.

McCall said that the only thing between Center Street in McCall said.

County 911 plan could replace Comm Center

By BILL HARPER Post Staff

for the grant.

As Luzerne County moves toward developing a county-wide 911 service, concerns over how the Back Mountain Communication Center will participate are being

"The police chiefs have met and although the county wants a central public safety answering position (PSAP), we want a multiple PSAP system," Kingston Township Police Chief Paul Sabol said. Sabol, is chairperson of the Back Mountain Communication Center.

"The advantage of a county-wide Officer Ben Gorey said that the 911 system is that a universal emergency number would benefit property be changed to a B-2 everyone from the very young to general commercial zone. He said the very old to people with that he does not know why the disabilities," county 911 coordinator Dave Macekura said. Back Communication Center adopted 911 in 1990 and would like to become a part of the Luzerne County 911 according to Sabol. But some members of the board are not convinced that one central

"What we have here with our own communication center is a good thing, and if the county takes over our 911, it will be a disaster, center solicitor Theodore Krohn said.

dispatch would be a good idea.

Despite the skepticism, Macekura said that the county wants to work in cooperation with the existing 911 services while at the same time working with state 911 guidelines under Pennsylvania

See 911, pg 10

Friends mobilize to aid Eddie Turchin and family

By GRACE R. DOVE

By BILL HARPER

Supervisors meeting.

Fifteen residents from Ferguson

Avenue in Shavertown protested a proposed zoning change which would allow a parking lot to be built in their neighborhood at the October 14 Kingston Township that the property owned by the estate of Sheldon Evans be changed from a single residential to a general commercial zone. The property is the only residential zone in a stretch

Attorney Bill McCall is proposing

Post Staff

The Back Mountain community has begun a drive to raise money to help the family of Eddie Turchin, the young man from Jackson Township who successfully battled cancer to become an Eagle Scout and graduate from Lake-Lehman

Eddie underwent an operation where it branches into a "y," Bonnie Turchin. Doctors had to. discovered the anuerism during a routine followup warm on in "The doctors said that Eddie's anuerism was the worst one that they had ever seen, but they were able to repair it," Mrs. Turchin

Eddie suffered a slight stroke during the surgery and has only partially regained consciousness, Mrs. Turchin said.

Although he can't open his eyes yet and has had several setbacks October 1 to repair an anuerism, a since the surgery, Eddie responds sort of bubble, in his carotid artery to family members and friends, squeezing their hands and making according to his mother, Mrs. the peace sign when they ask him

See TURCHIN, pg 10

Kingston Township Zoning

Evans estate is requesting that the predominantly commercial area.

See ZONING, pg 10

area is zoned for residentiai in a Dallas Kiwanis hosts Gorey said that the question on the change of in zoning has been annual Halloween Parade "All that we are asking for is to tabled for the November meeting. Although he does not know the reason why the area is zoned

The Annual Dallas Kiwanis Halloween Parade will be held on Sunday, Oct. 25 at the old Dallas Township High School parking lot on Church Street and Route 309. In the event of rain, the festivities will be held indoors at the Dallas Elementary School on Hildebrant

Contestants are requested to assemble at 12 p.m. Judging will take place at 12:30 p.m. and the parade starts at 1 p.m.

The parade will go down Church Street, Center Hill Road, Lake Street to the center of Dallas Borough and end at the parking lot near the Eastern Star building behind the Acme store.

Cash prizes will be awarded for the top five winners in the following categories: Most original, best group, prettiest, ugliest and funniest. In addition, all contestants will receive a "Halloween goodie bag"

The Dallas Women of Kiwanis will again select the contestant

See PARADE, pg 10

FIRST PLACE - Mary Ricci of Dallas won first prize for the ugliest costume in last year's Dallas Kiwanis Halloween