Noxen Bible Church to host evangelistic team Nov. 8-13

The Barry Webb Evangelistic Ministries Team will be holding special meetings November 8 - 13 at 7 p.m. at the Noxen Independent Bible Church.

Barry and Cheryl Webb are a husband and wife evangelistic team based near Cumberland, Maryland. Barry is the son of a well-known evangelist, Dr. Hal Webb of the Hal Webb Evangelistic Team. Cheryl is the daughter of a pastor in Nichols, New York. Together they make up a very unusual evangelistic team.

Barry and Cheryl have quite a variety of talents. First, they are accomplished musicians. In their meetings they sing solos, duets and through the electronics, also mixed quartets. Cheryl is also an excellent pianist and Barry plays the baritone horn. Besides music, the team has quite a few other specialties. Barry has had over 15 years in the field of puppetry and does all of the voices for the 20 puppets that travel with the team and their castle puppet stage. He is also a Gospel magician, and a ventriloquist. Some nights he will also draw a chalk art picture, complete with background music and colored lights.

All of their talents work together to point to the most important facet of their ministry, the preaching of the Word of God, the Bible. With all of these different ministries there is something for everyone young and old. The ministry of Barry and Cheryl Webb will certainly appeal to and bless the whole family.

The public is invited.

Revival November 11-15 at Dallas Baptist Church

Dallas Baptist Church will hold a Revival November 11-15 at 7 p.m. Richard David Coss, author of the book "Wanted" will be the speaker. Richard Coss was in prison nine years. Out of prison in 1971, Coss was ordained a Southern Baptist Minister in 1975, was awarded an unconditional pardon by President Gerald Ford. Coss lectures at schools, colleges, clubs and prisons across the country. He speaks about his personal life history, prison and prison reforms, the death penalty and drugs. Coss started the "Christ Bars None" prison ministry which is active across United States and foreign countries.

Tim Langley will present music for the revival. Langley is a composer and gospel singer. He has appeared with Steve Green, Carmen Cathedrals and Perfect Heart. He will direct the revival choir each night.

Wednesday, 6 p.m. hot dog supper.

Thursday through Sunday evening, refreshments after each service.

Child care available each evening. All are welcome.
