Heritage worship service scheduled for November 15

On Sunday, Nov. 15 at 11 a.m. a Methodist Heritage Worship Service of Morning Prayer will be held at The Shavertown United Methodist Church, 163 N. Pioneer Avenue, Shavertown.

Brian A. McCloskey, administrator and archivist of Historic St. George's Methodist Church, Philadelphia, the oldest Methodist Church in continuous use in the western hemisphere, will be liturgist and will deliver a homily based on a sermon by The Rev. John Wesley, 18th Century leader of the Methodist movement. McCloskey, along with Pastors Harriet L. Santos and James A. Wert, will be garbed in attire of the clergy of colonial times.

The Chancel Choir, directed by Ros Santos, church music director, will sing the anthem, "O Worship the King" accompanied by the Freedom Ringers Handbell Choir conducted by Peggy Knapich. The choir will also sing responses from the original service.

This heritage experience coincides with the Shavertown United Methodist Church's 102nd Anniversary and is sponsored by the church's Committee on Archives and History chaired by Mary Lou and Elwood Swingle. The regular weekend schedule of services on Saturday at 5:30 p.m. and Sunday at 9 a.m. will also be followed. The public is invited.
