Ruby Elston will note 96th birthday November 16

Ruby B. Elston, Overbrook Road, Huntsville, will celebrate her 96th birthday on November 16. Mrs. Elston, daughter of the late B. Frank and Ellen (Duckworth) Bulford, was born in 1896 in the home where she resides.

A graduate of Dallas Borough High School in 1914, she was employed during World War I as a secretary in the Ordinance Department of the United States Army in Bethlehem, Pa. Before her marriage in 1924 to Clarence R. Elston, of Lehman, she worked for the Post Office in Dallas. Clarence died in 1986.

Mrs. Elston is a member of the Huntsville United Methodist Church where she taught Sunday School for many years, United Methodist Women, Nesbitt Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, and Wyoming Conference Historical Society. She is a direct descendant of the Rev. Jacob Johnson who was Wyoming Valley's first settled minister in 1772.

Her son, Harold, lives on Reservoir Road, Huntsville and daughter, Nancy in State College. She has six grandchildren: David, Robert, Dale and Paul Elston, Eric and Heather Schimmel; nine great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. She became a great-great grandmother this year when Caleb James was born to Marie and David Elston, Jr., on March 23, 1992.

This remarkable woman is a joy and a blessing to all her family and friends. We all love you dearly Mom, and wish you a very happy birthday.

SCORE plans business seminar

SCORE Chapter counselors are shown at a planning for their upcoming workshop, "Starting and Managing A Small Business" which will be held on November 18 at the Holiday Inn, Wilkes-Barre. This is an all day workshop for people who are thinking of going into business or have done so recently and need assistance. The workshop will cover legal aspects, taxes and records, insurance, marketing, organizational structure and financing available. The cost of the workshop is $25 which includes lunch, refreshments and instructional material.

The Service of Retired Executives (SCORE) is a resource for individuals who want to start a small business or for an existing business in need of assistance. This service is free and is sponsored by the Small Business Administration. For information contact SCORE or SBA, 20 North Pennsylvania Avenue, Wilkes-Barre, PA 18701-3489. Telephone (717) 826-6502. Pictured from left are Ray Andes, Dallas and Wesley Boyle, Harveys Lake.

Three area doctors host free health screenings

Three area doctors will offer free health screenings to adults and children on Tuesday, November 17, from 1 to 5 p.m. The screenings will take place at the Back Mountain Eye Care Center on Memorial Highway in Shavertown.

Dr. Curtis Goodwin, optometrist, at the Back Mountain Eye Care Center will provide vision, cataract and glaucoma screenings; Dr. Santina A. Whited, chiropractor, from the Back Mountain Chiropractic Center in Dallas will offer scoliosis and postural screenings; and Dr. Robert Greenhalgh, general practitioner, will provide blood pressure screenings and answer other medical questions.

"Economically, this has been a particularly difficult year for many of our patients, and we believe that some people are foregoing medical attention in an attempt to save money," said Dr. Goodwin. "Anyone is welcome to drop by during the afternoon of November 17 to ask questions, be seen by three medical professionals and undergo a brief medical screening for free."

Dr. Goodwin added that the screenings are beneficial to everyone, especially if you do not see medical professionals on a regular basis.

"The trained eye of a doctor can often identify potential problems long before the patient himself realizes there is anything wrong," explained Dr. Goodwin. "Stop by and find out your blood pressure, if spinal problems could be causing other health problems, or if your vision really could be better."

Registration for the health screenings is not required. For more information, contact the Back Mountain Eye Care Center at 675-3627.

Ham dinner in Sweet Valley

The Sweet Valley Volunteer Fire Company will be hosting a Family Style Ham Dinner at the firehall on Saturday, Nov. 14, from 5 to 7 p.m. Cost will be $6.50 for adults, $3.25 for children ages 6-12. Takeouts will be available between 4:30 and 5 p.m. Tickets are available from any fireman or at the door.

New telescope at Penn State

On November 11, at 7 p.m., a special program will be held to "unveil" a new telescope at the Center for Technology, Penn State Wilkes-Barre Campus in Lehman. The public is invited to the program, which will feature a look at the stars in what is considered the very best time of year for stargazing. The new 14-inch Celestron telescope is in place in the Friedman Observatory, adjacent to the Center for Technology.

Leader of the program and tours will be Walter Bennett, who teaches astronomy at Penn State Wilkes-Barre and also is superintendent of the Mt. Wilson Observatory in California.

Because of limited seating, tickets are required for the evening. The first 100 persons to request a free ticket will receive them. To request a ticket, call 675-9228.
