

Answer to October 28 old photo

Our Old Photo published October 28 sure got a lot of attention. We received a couple of phone calls and we made a few calls and talked to people involved with the photo. It was so nice to know so many people enjoy our Old Photos. We are running the photo again this week with names. It was taken in 1929 and is the 9th grade class of Dallas Borough High School. The principal was Mr. George T. Bowen at the time. Our thanks to Bob Bowen, son of Mr. Bowen, principal, Janet Evans (who is in the photo) and Mrs. Jeanne T. Maxwell who supplied all the info leading up to and getting the names.

Home beautification award entry deadline is November 30

The Back Mountain Citizens Council is seeking nominations for the Second Annual Home Beautification Award. By filling out and returning the attached nomination form, you will help give recognition to those who have made special efforts to improve the quality of our built environment.

photographs, and literature will be used to select winners. The BMCC and its judges reserve the right to withhold awards when aesthetic standards are not met.

AWARDS: Commendations for the year will be published in a special Spring Home Improvement section of the Dallas Post, with articles giving photographic and written descriptions of the projects selected.

PURPOSE: To encourage the improvement of existing properties, rather than the development of new lands, these awards will be made for renovation or rehabilitation projects, (or small additions to existing buildings), including landscaping and other site improvements. New construction will not be considered.

QUALIFICATIONS:
 1. A residential exterior restoration, a renovation project, or a site improvement located in any of the nine member municipalities of the Back Mountain: Dallas and Harveys Lake Boroughs; Dallas, Franklin, Jackson, Kingston, Lake, Lehman and Ross Townships.
 2. Projects must have been completed within the past 5 years.
 3. Submission of before and after photographs is desirable.
 4. New addition projects will be considered if the area of the addition is less than 25% of the existing building, and the original structure has been renovated.

JUDGING: A panel of judges chosen by the Back Mountain Citizens Council will select the winners. Site visits,

We don't just make loans to small businesses. We invest in people.

At Hanover Bank, we believe in forming partnerships with the people doing business in our community. So we make borrowing easy for the people who need it most - small and minority - owned businesses.

When you come in for a loan, you won't have to deal with committees or red tape. You'll deal with one officer who will help you with your application and see it all the way through the process. It isn't always easy to get that important capital you need, but we know working together is just smart business - because when your business grows, so does ours.
