Thanksgiving concert to benefit food banks

The public is cordially invited to attend the Thanksgiving Concert at the Emmanuel Assembly of God Church on Church Road, Harveys Lake on November 20.

The combined choirs of the United Methodist Churches of Kunkle and Noxen, St. Luke's Lutheran of Noxen, Free Methodist of Bowman's Creek, and Emmanuel Assembly of God of Harveys Lake will present a sacred concert at 7 p.m. on Friday evening.

The hour long presentation will open with the stirring, "God Bless America" and close with the soul-sounding strains of the Doxology.

Featured through the evening will be a men's quartet...A ladies chorus...and prayers with a brief meditation by the participating clergy.

The offering, either monetary or canned goods, will be given to local food banks to feed the hungry at this time of year of Thanksgiving celebration.

All are welcome to remain for refreshments served in the Fellowship Hall by the participating churches.

Wilkes University Chorus holiday program Nov. 21

The Wilkes University Chorus and the Wilkes Chamber Singers, both under the direction of faculty member Stephen Barton, will perform a program of music from the Middle Ages through the 20th Century on Saturday, Nov. 21. The concert will be held in the First Presbyterian Church, Northampton and Franklin Streets, Wilkes-Barre. Beginning at 8 p.m., the presentation is free and open to the general public.

The Chamber Singers, a group of auditioned singers from the Department of Music, Theatre and Dance, will perform choruses from The Lark by American composer Leonard Bernstein. The Wilkes University Chorus, consisting of more than 60 singers from the university community, will begin their program with Zigeunerleben by Robert Schumann followed by another 19th German selection, Hellig, by Felix Mendelssohn. Next on the program is "The Shepherd's Chorus" from Amahl and the Night Visitors, a holiday favorite by Menotti.

Dr. Barton, conductor of the university choruses, is also music director for the Wyoming Valley Oratorio Society, The Singers' Guild of Scranton, the Wyoming County Chorus, and St. Peter's Cathedral in Scranton.
