Moskovitz and Sordoni to be honored by Explorer Scouts

The 1992 Salute of Northeastern Pennsylvania Women, hosted by the Exploring Division of the Northeastern Pennsylvania Council, Boy Scouts of America, will be held Wednesday, Dec. 9, 12:15 p.m., at the Woodlands Inn and Resort, Plains Township.

Exploring is the High-School young adult program of the Boy Scouts of America. Locally, Exploring boasts over 1500 young men and women enrolled in Career Interest, High Adventure, or Career Awareness programs throughout Northeastern Pennsylvania.

The Distinguished Honorees for this year's luncheon are Ann Moskovitz of Jermy and Susan Sordoni of Harveys Lake. These two women are being recognized for their outstanding contributions to their communities and for their exemplary participating citizenship in Northeastern Pennsylvania, serving as positive role models for all young adults.

Patti Graf of Clarks Summit and Vivian Greenberg of Harveys Lake are the 1992 Co-Chairwomen and have announced that 500 people are expected to be in attendance. Featured speakers, who will explain Exploring's role as a catalyst between education and our corporate citizens, will be Jim Brady, President of Allied Services, a company which charters an Explorer Post, and Dr. John Williams, Assistant Superintendent, Scranton City School District. Also Explorers Mini Demko and Shannon McDonald will talk about Exploring's positive impact on their lives.

All are invited to attend the region's premiere event which applauds the community contributions of all women throughout Northeastern Pennsylvania, and in particular of Ann Moskovitz and Susan Sordoni. Reservations will be accepted at the Scout Office (451-0350) until Monday, December 7. The price of the event is $50 per person.

Black Knights band plays at Wilkes game

The Lake-Lehman Marching Band was recently featured during halftime at the Wilkes University football game held at the Lackawanna County Stadium.

Wilkes University Vice President of Development, Thomas B. Hadzor presented Robbie Trescavage, a senior from Shavertown, and Band Director, Edward Richards with a plaque in appreciation of Lake-Lehman's participation.

Richards and his wife, Maureen, are 1978 graduates of Wilkes. The Wilkes University Colonels beat the Upsala Vikings 31-20.

Lake-Lehman band wins top honors at competition

The Lake-Lehman High School Marching Band participated in the Tournament of Bands Chapter VII Championship on November 8 at the John S. Fine High School, Nanticoke.

The band took First Place in Group II with a score of 95.9. They also swept the specialty awards, winning High Music, High Marching, Best Percussion, Best Band Front and Best Drum Major.

Winning the Chapter Championship gains Lake-Lehman

a place at the Atlantic Coast Championship to be held November 14 and 15, at the Lackawanna County Multi-Purpose Stadium, Montage. There, the local unit will compete against bands from 10 states. Lake-Lehman has won the Atlantic Coast Championship six straight years for a total of seven wins altogether. They hope to set a record of eight wins this year.

Edward Richards is the band director, assisted by Maureen Richards. Rob Trescavage is the
