MR. AND MRS. GUY LOMASCOLO

Couple celebrates first wedding anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lomascolo of Kingston recently celebrated their first wedding anniversary.

They were married November 9, 1991 in the Courtdale United Methodist Church, Courtdale. The Reverend Guy Burt officiated.

Mrs. Lomascolo, the former Christine L. Cavalari, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cavalari of Trucksville. Mr. Lomascolo is the son of Alex and Theresa Lomascolo of Harveys Lake.

The bride chose Lisa Minnelli of Wyoming, aunt of the bride, as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Kim Belter of Shavertown, friend of the bride and groom, and Lynn Cavalari of Kingston, cousin of the bride. Flower girls were Stacy Genelow of Wapwallopen and Shannon Stackhouse of Athens, both cousins of the bride.

The groom chose his brother, Alex Lomascolo of Wyoming to be his best man. Ushers were Edward Cavalari of Trucksville, brother of the bride, and Steve Finn of Kingston, cousin of the bride.

An evening reception was held at the Luzerne Borough Fire Hall, Luzerne. The bride was honored at a shower hosted by her bridal attendants.

Mrs. Lomascolo is a graduate of Dallas Senior High School, Luzerne County Community College and attended College Misericordia. She is the proprietor of Squeaky Clean Housekeepers.

Lomascolo is a graduate of Lake-Lehman High School and Luzerne County Community College. He is employed by Friedman Electric, Wilkes-Barre.

The couple spent their honeymoon in the Poconos and Niagara Falls.

A Christmas living history at Swetland Homestead

The Wyoming Historical and Geological Society announces its third Christmas Musical History, "The Night Before Christmas at Swetland Homestead," hosted by Clement Moore Mouse", December 3-6, 10-13, 7-9 p.m. nightly and 2-4 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays, at Swetland Homestead, 885 Wyoming Avenue, Wyoming.

Previous living histories performed at Swetland Homestead by the itinerant stage, a professional production company, include "The Legends of Saint Nicholas", "An Old Fashioned Wedding", "Lavender, Old Lace and Vesteryears" and Last Summer's "The Ghosts of Swetland Homestead".

"Lavender" recently received an Award of Merit for excellence in programming from the Pa. Federation of Museums and Historical organizations.

Featuring a talented cast, an historically accurate script, colorful costuming, seasonal music and dance, the presentation will involve the audience and transport visitors back in time to experience history "first hand".

For reservations for this family event, contact the Historical Society, 823-6244.

Volunteer needed for senior group

The Retired Senior Volunteer Program of Luzerne/Wyoming Counties needs a volunteer receptionist for a busy Back Mountain office. The duties will include light clerical work and answering the phone. A weekly commitment of three or four hours is requested. RSVP volunteers must be age 60 or older. For more information, call Anne or Bill at 287-5949. RSVP is sponsored by the Luzerne/Wyoming Counties Bureau for the Aging.

ROTARY GROUP STUDY EXCHANGE - Pictured are Dallas Rotarian Ted Bienkowski, who has been nominated by the Dallas Club for Group Leader, and speaker and district chairman of the Group Study Exchange program, Gino Marrazzo.

Rotary to begin Group Study program in Venezuela

Gino Marrazzo, Rotarian from Dunmore, recently spoke to the Dallas Rotary Club about the upcoming Group Study Exchange. The program is sponsored by the Rotary Foundation. Next spring, the local District 7410 will exchange teams with District 4380 in Venezuela, South America.

Applications are now being accepted for Team Membership and Group Leaders. The venture will take place from March 21 to April 25, 1993. A knowledge of the Spanish language is preferable, however this is not a determining factor for team membership. Some language training will be provided to the team.
