PennDOT reps will address next BMBPA meeting

The Back Mountain Business and Professional Association will host representatives from the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation (PennDOT) at the association's monthly meeting Wednesday, December 9.

The PennDOT personnel will explain plans for work at several intersections on routes 309 and 415 in the Back Mountain. Work is scheduled to begin next fall on intersections from Trucksville to Dallas.

The meeting will take place beginning at 7:45 a.m. at Pickett's Charge restaurant in Dallas. There is a $6.00 charge for a breakfast buffet. New members are welcome to attend. Membership is $75 yearly, and all members in good standing as of December 31, 1992 will be included in a directory booklet to be published next spring.

For more information, call Bartt Slocum, president, at 675-1167.
