

Tupper throws hat in district justice ring

By DAVE KONOPKI
Post Correspondent

As a former police officer, a local businessman and a victim of crime, Jim Tupper has first-hand knowledge of the duties of a district justice.

Now, he wants to put that experience to work.

Tupper will announce his candidacy for district justice at the Irem Temple Country Club on Saturday, January 9. He will cross-file and run on both the Republican and Democratic tickets in the May primary.

Current District Magistrate Earl Gregory has announced he will retire when his successor is elected. The magisterial district includes Dallas Borough, Dallas Township, Kingston Township, Franklin Township, Lehman Township, Lake Township, Harvey's Lake Borough and Jackson Township.

"The number one priority of a district magistrate is to serve justice and to see justice served," said Tupper. "Justice isn't always black and white. I want to be a full-time district magistrate, and that means that if I'm elected, I will no longer be running my business."

Tupper currently is the owner of Tup's Beverage Barn in Dallas.

The Dallas High School and East Stroudsburg University graduate with a B.A. in Sociology, Tupper said he learned a lot from Gregory.

"I went before him as a police officer and I thought he was very fair," said Tupper, who was a 13-year veteran of the Dallas Borough Police Department. "He was fair to both the police officer and the defendants as well."

Tupper is a graduate of the Municipal Police Officer's Training Program (Act 120) and received a certificate from the Minor Judiciary Board, enabling him to perform the duties of a district justice. He has also completed the educational updates for district justices.

Tupper, who was shot in both legs in the line of duty in 1986, is a member of the Trucksville United Methodist Church, serving as Sunday school teacher for the junior and senior high school stu-

Tupper, 41, resides in Trucksville with his wife Jill (Rittenhouse) and their son, Brian.

Area's best student musicians will play

By GRACE R. DOVE

Musicians "warming up" their instruments and impromptu rehearsals will echo through the halls of Lake-Lehman High School January 13-16, when the district hosts 163 students from 36 area schools in the 1993 District 9 Band Festival.

Students were selected in rigorous auditions at Honesdale High School in November, in which they were required to play a selected solo, different scales and sight-read a musical selection, according to Lake-Lehman band director Edward Richards.

"These are the top music students in their schools," Richards said. "Many take private lessons in addition to their regular music classes."

Open to students in grades 10-12, district band gives a school's best students an additional opportunity to perform and meet other music students.

The most popular instruments are the woodwinds and "high brass," Richards said. The "low brass" instruments, for example tubas, trombones and baritones are less popular among students because they're very expensive and too large to carry around on the school bus.

The students will perform two concerts, Friday, January 15 at 7 p.m. and Saturday, January 16 at 2 p.m., in the Lake-Lehman High School auditorium, with reserved seating only.

Tickets, $4 for adults and $3 for students, are available at the senior high school at 675-5201.

Participating Lake-Lehman students are Jennie Booth, Megan Mosier, Rhonda Evans, Sarah Sorber, Tammy Kopko, Shelly Chvotzkin, Johanna Miller, Jen-

Dallas High School students attending the festival are Valerie Prothero, Amy Beardsworth, Megan Stair, Becky Roan and Ryan Moss, Richards said.

Lt. Col. Alan Bonner, commander of the U.S. Air Force band in Washington, D.C., will conduct a program featuring selections by Percy Grainger, Ron Barret and James Barnes.

Proceeds from ticket sales and participants' registration fees fund the festival, which is sponsored by the Pennsylvania Music Educators' Association, an affiliate of the Music Educators' National Conference, Richards said.

Students participating in District Band are also eligible to audition for Regional and State bands.

Students participating in District Band will stay with area families during the festival; however Richards said that 14 students still need a place to stay. Interested families may contact either Lake-Lehman High School at 657-5201 or Mrs. Johanna Miller at 696-2930.

Eddie Turchin moves to John Heinz Institute

By GRACE R. DOVE
Post Staff

When Eddie Turchin celebrates his 19th birthday January 18, he'll have much more to celebrate than most young adults his age.

After surviving surgery to correct a brain aneurism, two strokes, four bouts of pneumonia and other serious complications, Eddie was transferred by ambulance Tuesday, December 29, to John Heinz Institute in Wilkes-Barre from the University of Pennsylvania Hospital, where he had been a patient since October 1.

The son of Bonnie and Ed Turchin of Jackson Township, Eddie has had to contend with major health problems for most of his life. When he was eight years old, he underwent surgery and radiation treatments to remove a malignant tumor on his pituitary gland.

Although he has had to take medication for related health problems for the past ten years, Eddie still managed to earn the rank of Eagle Scout and graduate from Lake-Lehman High School in 1992. Doctors in Philadelphia had found the aneurism during a routine examination early last summer.

Bonnie Turchin said that because Eddie is still so weak from his ordeal, he would appreciate cards and cheery notes rather than visitors until he becomes stronger.

"Eddie is resting and gradually easing into his new therapy routine," she said. "He tires very easily."

While Bonnie, Ed and sister Pam stayed at Eddie's side for three months in Philadelphia, friends from the community mobilized to set up a fund to help them take care of travel, food and lodging, as well as other expenses that are not covered by Eddie's health insurance.

Friends also sent notes, cards, "care packages" of snacks for the family and cassette tapes, Mrs. Turchin said.

"I was especially touched by the tape of greetings, poetry and songs that the students from Lake-Noxen School sent down," she said.

"Another tape, which made us all smile, came from Lake-Lehman High School, where many of Eddie's friends - students, faculty and even the office staff - sent down well-wishes. The cheerleaders even made up a special "Eddie cheer" for him."

In addition to a record number of cards, Eddie received a football autographed by his many friends on the team, Mrs. Turchin said.

Since the family still faces many expenses during Eddie's long road to recovery, more fundraisers are planned.

A square dance, featuring well-known caller Joseph "Red" Jones, will be held Friday, January 8, between 8:30 p.m. and midnight at College Misericordia's Merrick Hall, for $10 per person. All proceeds will be donated to the Turchin fund.

Eddie Turchin's new mailing address is Room 200, John Heinz Institute, 150 Mundy St., Wilkes-Barre PA 18702.

His family requests that visitors wait to visit Eddie until he is strong enough to enjoy the company.
