College Misericordia fund drive exceeds pledge goal

Donors to College Misericordia's fall phase of the 1992-93 Annual Campaign exceeded the College's pledge goals by 12 percent. In the fall phase of the annual campaign, which began October 13, pledges from corporations and friends totaled $84,225, exceeding the $73,500 goal.

During the Alumni Phonathon, held in November, alumni and parents pledged $104,000 exceeding the $95,000 goal.

The Annual Campaign, which concludes in June, 1993, has an overall goal of $278,000 in unrestricted funds. That goal includes a $139,000 Community Phase goal and a $139,000 Alumni and Parents Phase goal.

The Annual Campaign for unrestricted funds enables the College to operate on a balanced budget and keep tuition at its lowest possible level.
