

Coach Landry to speak at Scout dinner

The Northeastern Pennsylvania Council, Boy Scouts of America recently launched its 1993 Friends of Scouting Dinner campaign with a Table Host Kick Off at the Wilkes University field house. The dinner is scheduled for Wednesday, March 3, at 6 p.m. at the Genetti Hotel and Convention Center, Wilkes-Barre.

Dinner chairman, Dr. Wallace F. Stettler, announced that the featured speaker will be Tom Landry, legendary former coach of the Dallas Cowboys. Landry led his team to five NFL championships. Under his leadership, his team won Superbowls VI and XII.

Recipient of the council's Distinguished Citizen Award will be Tom Jacobs, Managing Director of Boscov's Department Store.

Jacobs is former president of the Boy Scout Council and active in numerous charitable and civic organizations. He is instrumental in revitalizing downtown Wilkes-Barre through innovative programs such as Women's Federation Day, The Great White Way, and numerous downtown parades and festivals.

Scouting officials hope to raise more than $80,000 from the dinner which is the council's largest annual fund raising event. The proceeds are used as part of the council's annual operating budget to provide services and programs to more than 10,000 youth and adult leaders in Luzerne, Wyoming, Lackawanna and Wayne counties. More than 250 local Scouting units meet throughout the year in local churches, schools, and civic organizations.

The council operates two camping facilities which are used during the summer and on most weekends throughout the year. Camp Acahela is located in Monroe County and is the primary weekend camp as well as the Cub Scout Resident Camp. Goose Pond Scout reservation is located in Wayne County near Lake Wallenpaupack and is used as the Boy Scout resident camp as well as weekend troop camping and camporees.

Tickets for the dinner are $125 per person. Reservations can be made by calling the Boy Scout service center at 655-5135 or by contacting any of the committee members.

Marriage enrichment program a success

Twelve couples from the Huntsville Christian Church recently completed a marriage enrichment series called Marriage for Lovers Only featuring noted family counselor H. Norman Wright. The four week series consisted of four video tape presentations followed by discussion groups. The topics covered included: how to build a solid foundation, how to add sizzle to one's marriage, how to really love your spouse and how to resolve conflicts.

The church's pastor, David Mansfield, who facilitated the discussions said, "The series did a lot to help couples rethink their marriage habits and provide ideas on how to renew our marriages." The program was so well attended that it is being offered to the public beginning February 25 - March 25 on Thursday evenings from 7 to 8 p.m. at Gifts From Above Christian Bookstore on N. Memorial Highway, Dallas. For further information or registration call 675-0611 or 675-4078.
