

DAMA lists used oil drop-off locations, handling rules

In cooperation with the D.A.M.A. Oil Recycling Program, the following companies are prepared to accept used Motor Oil only, free of charge as a public service to Dallas Borough, Dallas Township and Kingston Township residents according to the following conditions:

L.L. Richardson, 675-5851, Mon.-Fri., 8 a.m.-5 p.m.
Schmids Amoco, 675-2209, 7 days/wk. 8 a.m.-8 p.m.

Alan Dukes Garage, 696-4848, Mon.-Fri., 8 a.m.-5 p.m.
Finish Line Quick Lube, 675-6464, Mon.-Fri., 8 a.m.-5 p.m.,
Back Mt. Transmission, 675-1504, Mon.-Fri., 8 a.m.-6 p.m.

1) The oil should be contained in a clear HDPE water jug because it can reveal impurities.

2) Deposits are limited to 5 gallons per visit.

3) You must take the empty container(s) with you when finished.

4) The jug must not contain anything other than motor oil.

5) The depositor must sign a log confirming that there is nothing in the container other than motor oil.

6) If you refuse to sign the log, oil will not be accepted.

7) Should you need a container(s) for your used oil, contact a D.A.M.A. Recycling Representative at 696-1134.

Benefits of Used Oil Recycling:

- It takes only one gallon of used oil to make the 2.5 quarts of lubricating oil that it takes 42 gallons of crude oil to make.

- If all of the used oil in the U.S. were recycled, it would save us 1.3 million barrels of oil per day.

- Re-finishing oil takes only about one third the energy required to refine crude oil to lubricant.

Recycling award

Dallas Area Municipal Authority recently received a $12,000 award from DER for having recycled 965 tons of materials in the first six months of operating its recycling program, between July and December, 1991. The money will be used for either educational programs or new recycling projects, according to DAMA's recycling coordinator Larry Spaciano. Accepting the check for DAMA and its three member municipalities were Spaciano, Dallas Township supervisor Phil Walters, DAMA director Tom Bagley and Dallas Township supervisor Glenn Howell.
