Brownie Troop 596 earns "Career Try-it" patch

Brownie Troop 696 of Gate of Heaven School toured the Back Mountain Library recently for purposes of their "Career" Try-It. Mrs. Rudolph, Librarian, explained how and why she became a librarian and how she runs the children's section of the library. For purposes of their "It's a Small World" Try-It, Mrs. Rudolph read the girls several stories of children from other countries.

Other activities for their "Career" Try-It were: The girls were entertained at a complimentary dance lesson at Back Mountain Dance Studio. This fulfilled their requirement for seeing a small business in action.

Mrs. Kaye Gilbert, teacher at Gate of Heaven School spoke to the girls about teaching as a career and Mrs. Margaret Reino spoke to the girls about nursing as a career. Dr. Jane Durkin of Dallas Family Practice spoke to the girls about being a doctor.

Representative Phyllis Mundy wrote a letter to the girls and explained her duties in our State Government.

"All politics is local"

Shouldn't your advertising be, too?

Love him or hate him, Tip O'Neill knew one thing — when the votes are counted, it doesn't matter what people who live outside your district think about you. That's as true in the Back Mountain as it is in Back Bay, so if you're planning campaign advertising for a local office, put it where it will count the most...in The Dallas Post.

The Dallas Post is all local, all the time. Our readers are among the most influential and active in the region, so getting their vote might mean getting even more — their influence with friends and neighbors.

Sure, the city papers can claim more circulation, but what good does it do if the readers live in Wilkes-Barre, Pittston or Mountaintop? Not a bit.

Put your advertising where the votes are — in The Dallas Post.
