

Cancer Society seeks Daffodil Days volunteers

Don't just sit around and wait until May to enjoy the springtime and lovely flowers. Get a head start on celebrating spring by becoming a volunteer with the American Cancer Society's Daffodil Days today.

New volunteers are vital to make this annual event a success in the Wyoming Valley. Volunteer opportunities abound for those interested in working with sales, delivering daffodils, or even wrapping the flowers. If you are interested in putting your talent to great use and spreading hope to cancer patients, call the Wyoming Valley Unit today at 825-7763.

The daffodil is the first flower of spring and represents hope that a cure for cancer will be found. Proceeds from the event benefit cancer research, education, and patient services.

Mellon Bank displays area scenes by Sue Hand

Paintings by nationally recognized artist Sue Hand are currently on display in the lobby of Mellon Bank, Main Street, Dallas through the end of March. The watercolors of Back Mountain snow scenes depict the pinks, blues, mauves and turquoise seen in snowscapes through the eyes of an artist.

Paintings include watercolor interpretations of Lehman's Penn State Campus; Ricketts Glen; farms near Noxen and Loyalville; Leonards Creek in Kunkle; and the base of Bass Harbor Light-house in Maine.

Sue Hand is an artist and art instructor whose primary subjects include light and shade and the effects of weather. As a nationally recognized watercolorist, she is represented by galleries in Bass Harbor and Cranberry Isles, Maine and Hilton Head, South Carolina. She is founder of Cider Painters of America and the Pennsylvania En Plein Air Society as well as a member of over 20 professional art organizations.

She and her husband Joe own and operate Sue Hand's Imagery in Dallas.

Mozart Club to hold public program March 15

Mozart Club members extend an invitation to area residents for a classical music program entitled "An Evening with Guitar" on March 15 at 7:30 p.m. in the Church of Christ Uniting, Kingston.

Following a short business meeting conducted by President Connie DePasquale of Kingston, the audience will be entertained by Jean Anastasia, principal guitarist, assisted by Brian Clark, student at Wilkes Community Conservatory, and Bernard Skillens and Joseph Ward, music majors at Wilkes University.

Ms. Anastasia has a Bachelor of Music degree from the Hartt School of Music in West Hartford, CT and a Teaching Certificate from Central Connecticut State University. Her additional credits include Founding Director of the Wilkes Community Conservatory, Instructor of Guitar at Wilkes, and faculty member, Encore Music Camp.

Highlighting the concert will be pieces by Villa-Lobos, Coste, Brouwer, Giuliani, and Albeniz. Following the evening's free program, hospitality will be provided by Doris Carey and Norma Smith of Dallas.

The Mozart Club is a member of both the State and National Federation of Music Clubs and locally has over 100 members.

Kunkle Ambulance seeks new subscribers for 1993

The Kunkle Volunteer Ambulance Service is mailing ambulance subscription renewal letters this week. They are also mailing letters asking those who did not subscribe last year to become a subscribing member this year. Kunkle Ambulance provides service to Dallas Township-Monroe Township, Kunkle, Beaumont and Evans Falls area.

"The subscription program works somewhat like an insurance policy but is not insurance," said Jack Dodson, Chief of the volunteer service. He explained that those subscribing to the Ambulance are entitled to unlimited emergency medical care and ambulance transportation to the nearest appropriate hospital at no out-of-pocket cost to the subscriber. Non-subscribers are liable for the entire cost of the ambulance service.

The cost to subscribe is $20 for individuals, $30 for families; and $15 for senior citizens. "Whether a person subscribes or not, no one is ever denied emergency medical service," he said. Non-emergency ambulance service is also available with 24 hours notice.

Dodson said subscription income is a very big part of the service's budget and that the current levels of service could not be maintained without it. Their goal this year is $25,000. The volunteers are looking to 1995 when they will have to replace one of the ambulances.

"We need to set money aside for the purchase along with maintaining existing equipment, purchase new medical supplies and equipment, and pay for insurance. Anyone not receiving a subscription mailing can enroll by mailing a check to the Kunkle Volunteer Ambulance Service, Box 301A, RR #1, Dallas, PA 18612.

Jim Post to speak at Dial-A-Driver's annual meeting

Quadruplegic and recent King's College graduate, Jim Post IV, will be the keynote speaker at this year's annual luncheon meeting. The local human service agency is now celebrating its 20th year of continuous operation in the greater Wyoming Valley and surrounding areas. Dial-A-Driver was founded by Mrs. Katharine Wiener and began in the aftermath of Tropical Storm Agnes in 1973. The meeting will take place at Genetti Hotel and Conference Center, Wilkes-Barre, March 18 beginning at 12 noon.

Post is the grandson of former county commissioner, James B. Post of Hanover Township. He recently drew national attention following repeated turn-downs to medical schools despite his near perfect academic record and summa cum laude graduation from King's College.

Jim Post is only the second quadruplegic in the United States to attain the rank of Eagle Scout. Post is currently enrolled in graduate studies in biochemistry at the University of Scranton.

These services are made possible by the support of individuals, churches, community organizations, businesses and the Luzerne County Transportation Authority. Dial-A-Driver maintains 4 vans to meet the needs of eligible elderly and the physically disabled. According to Bartley, more than 30 volunteer drivers augment the schedule maintained by the eight paid van operators.

The general public is welcome to the March 18 annual meeting. Tickets are on sale and available at $12 per person. Reservations may be made by calling the agency's office at Church of Christ Uniting, Market Street, Kingston, at 287-9809. General chairman for the annual meeting is Mrs. Sue Stetler of Dallas.
