

Back Mountain Senior Citizens elect officers

Following a catered St. Patrick's Day luncheon, Mary Ann Daley, coordinator of Project Head Senior Citizens Clubs, presided over the installation of 1993 officers of the Back Mountain Senior Citizens Club, with the following members elected into office: Irene Katyl, President; Marie Yuknavage, Vice President; Sophie Kapral, Recording Secretary; Joseph Baltrushes, Treasurer.

oski was a slide presentation of The Shrines of Canada, Longwood Gardens and the club's fashion show "Dress for Less" and "Those Were the Days". Bingo and card games followed.

Hospitalized members include Marge Molley and Art Dennis. Marie Naperkoski has returned to her home following a stay in John Heinz Rehabilitation Center.

Sleeping bags for the homeless project, under the direction of Lillian Soveroski is held at 11 a.m. each of the mornings of the meetings, which are held the first and third Thursday of each month.

The Back Mountain Senior Citizen Club is a nondenominational organization with meetings held in the auditorium of St. Therese's Church, Pioneer Ave., Shavertown. Anyone 50 years of age and older, working or retired is eligible to join. On the first Thursday of the month, a business meeting is held, with the third Thursday of the month being a social gathering. Beyond the two meetings, this retired "Youth Group" enjoys picnic outings, trips, dances, theater and ball games. All are welcome to join.

The outgoing officers, President Lillian Soveroski, Vice President, Elsa Maughan, Secretary, Irene Katyl and Treasurer, Kay Hudak were recently entered by the club members at a luncheon held at Bonanza Steak House, Dallas. The next meeting will be April 1
