Luzerne County Special Olympics is accredited

Luzerne County Special Olympics Committee was presented with the "Certificate of Accreditation" by the Pennsylvania Special Olympics. Three hundred and fifty four Luzerne County special athletes are provided with a year-round sports program in 11 Olympic-type sports. Individuals with mental retardation are given continuing opportunities to develop physical fitness skills, self-esteem and social graces. Luzerne County Special Olympics was organized in 1969 by Angelo Marcino (Deceased), Ron Moran and Jerry Fonzo.

Friends of Library to honor Dallas author Linda Stallone

The Friends of the Back Mountain Memorial Library announces their Fifth Annual Luncheon With A Special Author, to be held on Thursday, April 29. Linda Stallone, Dallas author, will speak about her book, On Your Own: Adult Independence for Ages 18-100. The luncheon will be held at The Apple Tree Terrace (formerly The Barn), Newberry Estates, Dallas, and is open to the public. The social hour is at 11:30, the luncheon will start at 12 noon. Proceeds will benefit the library.

Mrs. Stallone, a writer, former teacher and college and business administrator, co-authored the book with her husband, Dr. James Stallone, a local psychologist in private practice, former university professor and counselor. Linda Stallone is also the author of The Flood That Came to Grandma's House, illustrated by Dallas artist Joan Schooley. Dr. and Mrs. Stallone are the parents of two grown children and a toddler.

For information and reservations, call the Back Mountain Memorial Library at 675-1182. Early reservations are urged, since seating is limited.

Misericordia to hold Living Stations of the Cross April 5

The Campus Ministry Office at College Misericordia will present the Living Stations of the Cross as part of the Holy Week festivities Monday, April 5 beginning at 7 p.m.

The Stations will begin at the campus' main entrance. A life-size cross will be carried throughout the campus, stopping at the appropriate locations to remember the way that Jesus walked on Good Friday.

Women's Club aids Child Council

Rosemary Zagorski, chairman of Dallas Area Federated Women's Club Federation Day Baked Goods Booth announces a successful day once again. Nancy Rowlands, Dallas Club, served as co-chairman of Baked Goods and several other club members worked shifts throughout the day.

The proceeds for '93 Federation Day, sponsored by Luzerne County Federation of Womens' Clubs and Boscov's will benefit Child Development Council of Northeastern Pennsylvania. The total amount raised for the day will stay in Luzerne County to purchase educational materials for the various centers in the county. The centers provide working parents with a safe, pleasant environment for their children. Anyone in need of child care through the council is encouraged to call 829-2446 for information.

Federation Day is an annual event and each year different organizations are interviewed until one is chosen to receive the proceeds. Over the past several years the day has raised from $14,000 to $22,000 high in one single day of sales.

Girl Scouts to host spring gift and flower show April 3

Flowers and More '93, the Penn's Woods Girl Scout Council's way to welcome spring, will be held on April 3 and 4 at Genetti's Wilkes-Barre from noon to 5 p.m. More than 20 vendors will be on hand, showcasing items for Spring gift giving.

The scene will be set with a beautiful garden designed by Bill

Sheehee from Dundee Gardens. The show is a project of the Penn's Woods Council Board of Directors to benefit the Girl Scout program. Frances Paciga, Wilkes-Barre is the chair for the event. This is the 30th Anniversary of the Council which has served more than 180,000 girls and women in six counties during that time.
