Business group to tour Anderson Center

The Back Mountain Business and Professional Association will hear from two members of state government and get a private tour of the new gymnasium at College Misericordia April 14.

The group will meet at 7:45 a.m. for breakfast in the Fireside

Lounge at McHale Hall on the Misericordia campus. After breakfast, state representative Phyllis Mundy and state senator Charles Lemmond will address the group about issues of interest to small business. A private tour of the new Anderson Health Center, which is located adjacent to McHale Hall, will follow.

The cost of the breakfast is $5 per person. Parking will be available. Non-members are welcome to attend one meeting before deciding to join the organization. For further information, call Bartt Slocum, president, at 675-1167.

Correction

Due to a typographical error, the figure for the amount of money spent per student worldwide was incorrect in last week's A. Case for conservation column. The correct figures appear here:

"Many 'developing' nations spend twice as much on the military as they spend on health care or education. In fact, world military spending per soldier totals $36,000; world educational expenditures per student total only $1,100."

Last week's article had incorrectly listed the educational expenditures as $11,000 per student.

The two lovely ladies in the March 24 issue of our "Old Photo" have been identified by Judy Dawe of Lehman.

It seems the scene is at Hanson's Park, Harveys Lake, in 1978. They were photographed as being the two oldest Majors at the Major reunion that year. On the left is Myrtle Major Köcher, descendant of Frank Major and next to her Kathleen Major Brown, descendant of David Major.

Thanks to Judy Dawe for the info.
