General Hospital Auxiliary plans card party April 26

Members of Wilkes-Barre General Hospital Auxiliary's Card Party Committee recently gathered to plan the annual spring event, which will be held Monday, April 26 at 1 p.m., St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Wilkes-Barre.

The card party features a drawing for separate prizes of $1000 and $500 in cash; a trip to New York City theater performance, courtesy of Mertz Trailways; and a $100 gift certificate for Insalaco's Markets. Tickets, which are $1 each are six for $5, available from Auxiliary members or in General Hospital's main lobby.

A separate raffle will feature "A Taste of Italy," a large basket of assorted Italian specialties. Raffle tickets are three for $1.

Hospice St. John slates grief workshop for April 21

Hospice Saint John, a division of Lutheran Welfare Service of Northeastern Pennsylvania, Inc. will offer a six-week grief workshop for Wilkes-Barre area residents beginning April 21.

The workshop is open to the public, free of charge, and will be limited to 30 participants. Early registration is advised.

Designed to assist people through the process of grieving after the loss of a loved one, the workshop consists of lectures, small group sharing, and a structured plan of action for working through the pain caused by loss.

The grief workshop is a series of two-hour meetings one morning a week for six weeks. The meetings will begin on Wednesday, April 21 and will be held on consecutive Wednesdays: April 28, May 5, 12, 19 and 26. The workshop will be held from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, 813 Wyoming Avenue, Kingston.

The workshop will be presented by Rev. Mary E. Laufer, Chaplain and Bereavement Care coordinator at Hospice Saint John. To register, call Hospice Saint John's Wilkes-Barre office at 823-2114.

Hospice Saint John has offered special home care for terminally ill patients and their families since 1979.

Osterhout Library to present "History of Frances Slocum"

On Sunday, April 18, at 2 p.m., the Friends of the Osterhout Free Library will present a special Sunday program as the initial event in the week-long celebration of National Library Week, an annual celebration of libraries and services.

The presentation will be entitled "History of Frances Slocum". Jerry Kozlansky, Environmental Education Specialist, will be the presenter. Mr. Kozlansky graduated from State University of New York College of Environmental Science and Forestry and is currently employed by the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Resources.

Kozlansky will present a slide-lecture discussing Frances Slocum, Native Americans and their Legends, and the history of the Back Mountain Area. The one hour program will include a question and answer period.

Since space is limited in the Library's Reference Area, preregistration is required. To preregister call 823-0156, ext. 15 or stop at the Information Desk.

Immediately following the lecture, the Friends will conduct their annual meeting. Refreshments will be served.

On the day of the program, please enter the Library by the rear entrance.
