Stephanie Demyun acts in college dramatic production

Shavertown resident Stephanie Demyun participated in Theatre Messiah's presentation of Anton Chekhov's "Three Sisters" at Messiah College.

The play, directed by James Cramer, Associate Professor of Theatre at Messiah, was performed April 1 through April 6 at the Climehaga Fine Arts Center. Chekhov's play focuses on the search for the meaning in life.

Demyun a 1991 graduate of Dallas Senior High, is a sophomore communications major. Demyun is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephan Demyun, North Lehigh Street.

Christopher Lawley earns prestigious academic award

Christopher Lawley, a third year dental student was one of two outstanding students selected to represent the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Dentistry, as the recipient of the prestigious Thomas P. Hinman Academic Scholarship Award. Nine other Southeastern Dental Universities also selected two of their outstanding students to receive this award. The presentation was made at the annual Hinman Dental Meeting in Atlanta, Georgia, on March 22.

Dr. Kenneth May, Dean of Admissions at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Dentistry, and Chris' father, Charles B. Lawley, D.D.S., were present for the awards ceremony.

Chris, a 1985 graduate of Dallas High School, received a B.A. degree from Gettysburg College. He will be graduating from Dental School in May, 1994.

Dr. Lawley, who resides in Shavertown, is a member of Dental Associates, and practices dentistry at their Back Mountain Dental Office, on Carverton Road in Trucksville and at their office in the Wyoming Valley Mall.

Pilecki attends nurse meeting

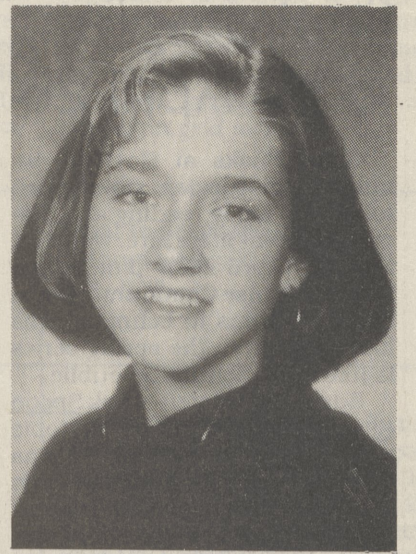

Justine Pilecki of Shavertown, a senior nursing student at College Misericordia, represented the College at the National Student Nurses' Association Convention in Kansas City, MO, April 14-18.

More than 2,500 future nurses from around the country were expected to attend this year's conference entitled "Plug into the Future - the Power to Care."

As the president of the Student Nurse Association of Pennsylvania (SNAP) at Misericordia, Pilecki represented Misericordia in legislative activities at the convention.

Pilecki recently had material published in SNAP's statewide newsletter and attended the SNAP state convention last fall.

She is also a member of Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society for Nursing.
