Cinderella on stage April 30-May 2

Taking more than a mere "academic interest" in the performing arts are Wilkes University students Billi Jo Martin, Tom Jarmiolowski and Timothy Williams, who will perform in Ballet Northeast's full-length classical ballet, "Cinderella", which will be presented at 8 p.m., Friday and Saturday, and 2 p.m., Sunday, April 30-May 2, at the Darte Center for the Performing Arts, Wilkes University.

The stunning costumes for this ballet have been especially designed by Associate Director Kristin Schleich Degnan (who with her husband Peter, serves on the faculty of the Wilkes' Department of Music, Theatre and Dance). A large cast of more than 50 will perform Artistic Director Peter Degnan's choreography, set to the haunting strains of Sergei Prokofiev. This production, premiered by the Company in Wilkes-Barre six years ago, also features the gorgeous sets originally designed by Joseph Harris, and enhanced by a recent creation executed by John Swanson. Appearing in the principal roles will be April and Simon Ball, the precocious young artists from Pittsburgh.

The public is cordially invited to share in this delightful, family-oriented celebration of the liveliest of the performing arts.

Tickets, priced at $10 and $6 for children and seniors, may be secured at Gallery of Sound outlets, the Dance Shoppe, the Kiddie Shoppe, Gino's Shoe Stores (Dallas and Mountaintop), and Humphrey's Children's Apparel, as well as at the box office just prior to curtain time.

For additional information and telephone reservations, call 825-3515.
