K.T. road crew commended

The Kingston Township Board of Supervisors recently commended the Township Road Department for their exceptional efforts during the blizzard of 1993, March 13-17.

According to Township Manager, Jeffrey Box, "Our road department worked tirelessly to make sure our roads remained open and passable during the blizzard. The Supervisors and residents of Kingston Township are proud of the work they performed."

The Township Road Department worked 18 hours straight at one point during the storm to keep the roads clear. The total cost expended by the Township in fighting the blizzard was $14,500.
