

Round trip

Jeff Kunkle slammed two home runs as the Dallas Mountaineers topped Coughlin 11 to 6 Monday. After giving up five runs in the first inning, Dallas came back to score eight times in the bottom of the inning, then added three more in the bottom of the eighth. Winning pitcher Dave Fisher relieved Pete Waichulis with only one out in the first and went on to pitch the rest of the game, allowing only two Coughlin hits and one run.

Besides Kunkle, who finished the game 3-for-3 and drove in 6 runs, it was a big day at the plate for Mike Viglone, who went 2-for-4; Todd Paczewski, 3-for-4; Pat Joyce, 2-for-3; and Marc Barbose, 2-for-4. The win improved the Mountaineers record to 5-8. Kunkle is shown above crossing the plate after his first homer, which drove in three.

Girls' b'ball camp at Sem this summer

Wyoming Seminary's Lady Blue Knights Basketball Camp will launch its second year of instruction this summer for girls entering grades 5 through 9. The first session will run June 14-18, followed by a second June 21-25.

Clinic director, Bernadette Kozlowski, announced her coaching staff. A graduate of Lackawanna Trail High School and Lehigh University, Kozlowski played professional basketball in Belgium in 1990. She is head coach of the Wyoming Seminary's girls' basketball team.

Staff includes: Jeanne Kowalski, Assistant clinic director, a certified athletic trainer. She is trainer and J.V. coach at Scranton Prep; Shelly Lyons, a graduate of Seton Catholic and College Misericordia; Mary Heller, a graduate of Forest City High School and LaSalle University; Becky Grimaud, a graduate of Tunkhannock Area H.S. and Atlantic Union College, MA; Colleen McGarry, a graduate of Seton Catholic and Wilkes University; Annie Guzek, a graduate of Scranton Prep and Dickinson College; Maggie Meagher, a graduate of Honesdale High School and Mount St. Mary's College, MD.

Girls can sign up for either session. Cost is $100 per session, and all campers receive a free basketball. For more information, call 283-6066.

Former high school stars at Misericordia

Four former Wyoming Valley Conference standouts have enjoyed a successful softball season at College Misericordia.

Coach Charlotte Slocum's team ended the regular season with a 16-11 record and is in contention for a bid to the ECAC South Division III Tournament.

Dallas High School product Laura Poynton, a junior tri-captain, led the Cougars with 20 runs scored and at .338, was one of five starters to hit above .300.

Jen Smith, a freshman from Lake-Lehman, led the team in hitting at .392 and was second in runs batted in with 14.

Jen Smith has been named April Co-Athlete of the Month at College Misericordia.

A freshman first baseman, Smith shared the honor with Eric Williams, a catcher on the men's baseball team.

She collected 23 hits in April for a .404 average and scored 12 runs and had eight RBI's.

Tunkhannock grad Courtney Strumski, a freshman who played third base and leftfield, was second on the team in scoring with 18 runs and hit .308.

Freshman Bonnie Lee from Wyoming Area led the team in RBI's with 17 from her designated hitter spot and also provided depth on the mound. Lee compiled a 4-2 pitching mark with one save.

Rangers hold unbeaten mark

A different week, but the same story, as Back Mountain Baseball's major league division completed its third week of action at the beautiful baseball complex.

The Rangers remained unbeaten while the Indians stayed close on their heels in the American League. In the National League, four teams, the Cardinals, Dodgers, Reds and Astros, remained in a four-way tie for first while the Pirates find themselves just one game back.

In major league softball, the Red Sox find themselves comfortably atop the standings with a perfect 4-0 record.

Here is a roundup of the reported games for the week. All home team managers are reminded to call 283-5532 within 24 hours after the completion of their games if they wish to have the results published.

win. Russ Eyet and J.J. Smith led the Giants with two hits apiece, with Eyet getting a triple. J.B. Bucha scored four runs for the winners. Every Giant starter scored at least one run.

Matt Hoover and Josh Lesinski had the lone hits for the Phillies.

RANGERS 9 - REDS 1

Winning pitcher Mike Faneck faced the minimum nine batters in the final three innings, striking out seven, to lead the Rangers over the Reds in the battle of division leaders. Darrell Evans led the Rangers with two hits, including a double, while teammate Matt Gingo also had a pair of hits.

Jim Davis and Brad Jumper had the lone hits for the Reds, with Jumper belting a double. Both hits came in the third inning.

ASTROS 15 - PHILLIES 3

Damian Temperine, Russell Wenrich and Greg Stanislow each had a pair of hits to lead the Astros over the Phillies. Winning pitcher Rich Samanas twirled a one-hitter and did not allow a run after the first inning while striking out 10. Nathan Davis belted a double for the Astros.

Charles Whitehead was the lone bright spot for the Phillies, blasting a three-run homer in the first inning, scoring Dan Breyemeier and Mike Brown.

ASTROS 8 - CARDINALS 4

The Astros parlayed five walks and a hit batter into a five run third inning en route to the win. Matt Morris picked up the win for the 'Stros, striking out nine in going the distance. Rich Samanas doubled for the winners and scored two runs while teammate Damian Temperine also scored a pair of runs.

Mike Regan led the Cardinals with a pair of singles while Dan Nichol and Mike Tanner each stroked doubles.

White Sox	0-1

RED SOX 23 - A'S 11

Rachel Hiller had three hits while teammates April Naugle, Sarah Stolarick and Amy Kapral each had a pair of singles to lead the Red Sox. Stolarick picked up the mound win, striking out seven in three innings.

Marino and Benedetti had the lone hits for the A's.

RED SOX 17 - CARDINALS 5

Maureen Paley pitched three hitless innings, striking out eight, and had three hits herself to pace the Red Sox over the Cardinals. Amanda Stolarick also had three hits for the Red Sox while Rachel Hiller added a double.

Miller had a double for the Cardinals while Rebecca Kaufman added the other lone hit for the Cards.

Game Results

REDS 9 - PIRATES 1

Jonathan Habrack hurled a one-hitter over five innings, striking out 12 batters, to lead the Reds over the Pirates. Josh Dukas and Brad Jumper led the Red offensive attack with two hits apiece, including a double. Bruce Nagle added a double for the winners.

Jason Lezinski led the Pirates with two hits, both singles, while E.J. Ishley had the only other hit for the Pirates.

RANGERS 4 - RED SOX 1

Matt Wycallis sparked on the mound and at the plate to lead the Rangers. Wycallis tossed a complete-game, three hitter, striking out four and walking just two. He also had a pair of hits to lead the Ranger attack. Aaron Katyl and Tim Flannigan also had hits for the Rangers.

The loss overshadowed a fine pitching performance by 10-year old Andrew Lohin, who gave up just four hits to the league leaders. Marcus Sowick led the Red Sox with two hits, including a double, while Jonathan Knarr had the only other hit for the Sox, a double.

NOTE: The Red Sox have been getting fine play in recent games from David Spurlin, who was mistakenly called Chuck. We apologize for the error.
