Troop 650 concludes busy year

Brownie Troop 650 of Dallas has concluded their regular meetings for the year. They will have a pool party and picnic on June 26.

Troop 650 is comprised of first year Brownie Girl Scouts. The girls worked very hard this year, earning a total of 11 badges. Some of their activities included: an investiture ceremony, a visit to the Pediatrics wing at Geisinger, a Halloween party, Christmas caroling at the Meadows, the annual Girl Scout cookie sale, participation in an Aerobics class, a roller skating party, a visit to the Back Mountain Library, a T-shirt designing activity, tour of the Craft Room, and an outing at Knoebels.

The girls who participated are Whitney Adams, Alyssa Daniels, Samantha Dymond, Erica Long, Jennifer Opel, Amber Pasqualchio, Cara Soloski and Danielle Zarambo. Troop co-leaders are Marjorie Adams and Judy Daniels.

The girls would like to thank everyone who supported them this year, especially Mrs. Rudolph at the Back Mountain Library, Denise at the Craft Room and their parents.

Flea Market planning committee

More than 90 vendors will be present at the Flea Market planned by the Meadows Nursing Center Auxiliary for Saturday, June 19, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on the Center's grounds, 55 W. Center Hill Road, Dallas. Raindate is June 26. Free parking is available.

Featured will be a variety of merchandise, and the Auxiliary will serve a luncheon that includes homemade pies. Special features will include fingerprinting children, noon to 2 p.m., by Kingston Township Police Department; blood pressure screening, 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.; Penny Candy Booth sponsored by residents at the Center; and woodcraft booth with items made by the residents.

Recognized as Pathfinders

Pathfinder Awards, the highest award of the Luzerne County Women's Network, are to those women from this area who have challenged the traditional assumptions of women's roles in society. The Pathfinder is a role model for other women by demonstrating outstanding qualities of dignity, initiative and endurance. The 1993 Pathfinder Awards were presented this month at the Ninth Annual Women's Conference held at Penn State Wilkes-Barre.

Pictured, from left, Vera Cornish, community activist working to improve appreciation of diversity; Dr. Nancy Davis, superintendent of schools in the Lake-Lehman School District and the first woman to be a school superintendent in the history of this intermediate unit; Marge Spencer of Dallas, a pioneer in creating vital programs for the elderly; Sister Miriam Francis Stadulis, RSM, resident of Dallas who directs Project Remain and the McGlynn Learning Center in Wilkes-Barre. The conference was attended by more than 500 persons, and included workshops on 66 different topics.
