Nancy Dukes' artwork is on display at Mellon Bank

Artworks by Trucksville artist Nancy Dukes are currently on display in the lobby of Mellon Bank, Main Street, Dallas, through the end of July.

Dukes works in watercolor, graphite and alkyd, but her favorite art medium is pen and ink. Her artwork is very realistic as she captures scenes from the outdoors. Her love of history is evident in her drawings and paintings of historical landmarks and, as a volunteer for the Wyoming Historical and Geological Society, Dukes gives tours at Sweetland Homestead in Wyoming. "I try to fill my life with something interesting everyday," Dukes says.

Currently Dukes is studying art under the direction of Sue Hand of Dallas, serves as a volunteer at Meadows Nursing Home in Dallas and is the coordinator in the Back Mountain for the American Red Cross. She is also a member of the Back Mountain based national painting organization, Cider Painters of America.

When Dukes is not painting or volunteering to help others, she enjoys knitting, counted cross stitch, needlepoint and playing the piano.

Dukes resides in Trucksville and is also extremely active in the Trucksville United Methodist Church. She is the mother of two grown children and grandmother of three.

The public is invited to view this exhibit of artwork in the lobby of Mellon Bank, Main Street, Dallas, during normal banking hours through the end of July.
